PROCLAMATIONS.

[L.S.]

THOS. W. PATERSON,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To Our faithful the Members elected to serve in the Legislative Assembly of Our Province of British Columbia, at Our City of Victoria.—GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

W. J. BOWSER, { Attorney-General } WHEREAS We are desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our people of Our Province of British Columbia, and to have their advice in Our Legislature:

Now know ye, that for divers causes and considerations, and taking into consideration the ease and convenience of Our loving subjects, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Executive Council of the Province of British Columbia, to hereby convoke, and by these presents enjoin you, and each of you, that on Thursday, the sixteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, you meet Us in Our said Legislature or Parliament of Our said Province, at Our City of Victoria, FOR THE DISPATCH OF BUSINESS, to treat, do, act, and conclude upon those things which, in Our Legislature of the Province of British Columbia, by the Common Council of Our said Province may, by the favour of God, be ordained.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of the said Province to be hereunto affixed:

WITNESS, His Honour THOS. W. PATERSON, Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our said Province, this twenty-seventh day of February, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twelve, and in the second year of Our Reign.

By Command.

HENRY ESSON YOUNG,
Provincial Secretary.

[L.S.]

C. FITZPATRICK,
Deputy Governor-General of Canada.

CANADA:

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these Presents shall come, or whom the same may in any wise concern—GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION.

E. L. NEWCOMBE, { Deputy Minister of Justice, Canada. } WHEREAS it hath pleased Almighty God, in His Great Goodness, to vouchsafe this year unto our Dominion of Canada a bountiful harvest and other blessings: We, therefore, considering that these blessings enjoyed by Our people throughout the said Dominion do call for a public and solemn acknowledgment, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council for Canada, to appoint, and We do appoint, Monday, the twenty-eighth day of October next, as a day of General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the bountiful harvest and other blessings with which Canada has been favoured this year; and We do invite all Our loving subjects throughout Canada to observe the said day as a day of General Thanksgiving.

Of all which Our loving subjects and all others whom these presents may concern are hereby required to take notice and to govern themselves accordingly.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

CONDENSED RULES RESPECTING NOTICES FOR
PRIVATE BILLS.

ALL APPLICATIONS to Parliament for Private Bills shall be advertised by a notice in The Canada Gazette, clearly and distinctly stating the nature and objects of the application and signed by or on behalf of the applicants with the address of the party signing the same. For an Act of Incorporation the name of the proposed company shall be stated. If the works of any company are to be declared to be for the general advantage of Canada the same shall be specifically mentioned in the notice, and a copy of such notice shall be sent by registered letter to the clerk of each county or municipality which may be specially affected by such works, and also to the Secretary of the Province in which such works are or may be located; and proof of such service of notice shall be established by statutory declaration.

In addition to the notice in The Canada Gazette aforesaid a similar notice shall be published in some leading newspaper, as follows:—

1. For Acts of Incorporation—(a) Of a railway or canal company, or of a company for the construction of any special works, or for obtaining any special rights and privileges: In the principal place in each county or district affected;

(b.) Of a telegraph or telephone company: In the principal place of each Province in which the company intends to operate;

(c.) Of banks, insurance, trust, loan, or industrial companies (without any special powers): Advertise in The Canada Gazette only.

2. For Amendments to Acts of Incorporation—

(a.) For the extension of a line of railway or canal or branches thereto: In the principal place in each county affected;

(b.) For the revival or continuation of a charter or for extension of time for the construction of works of any kind or for the enlargement of any of the powers of a company (not involving additional special powers): At the head office of the company;

(c.) For the granting of any special powers or privileges: In the localities actually affected.

All such notices shall be published at least once a week for five consecutive weeks; and in Quebec and Manitoba shall be published in both English and French; and if there be no newspaper published in the locality affected, such notice shall be given in the next nearest locality wherein a newspaper is published. Proof of publication shall be established in each case by statutory declaration to be sent to the Clerk of the House.

For further particulars as to notices, petitions, form and deposit of bills, etc., address the Clerk of the House of Commons, Ottawa, or see the Rules of the Commons relating to Private Bills as published in The Canada Gazette.

THOS. B. FLINT,

Clerk of the House of Commons.

APPLICATION TO PARLIAMENT — THE
SENATE OF CANADA.NOTICE FOR PRIVATE BILLS—EXTRACTS FROM RULES OF THE SENATE.

ALL APPLICATIONS to Parliament for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall be advertised by a notice published in the Canada Gazette; such notice shall clearly and distinctly state the nature and objects of the application, and shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicants, with the address of the party signing the same, and, when the application is for an Act of Incorporation, the name of the proposed company shall be stated in the notice.

In cases where exclusive powers are asked, in addition to the notice in the Canada Gazette aforesaid, a similar notice shall also be published in some leading newspaper in the principal city, town, or village, in each county or district, and in each province or territory which may be affected by the passage of such Private Bills, according to the nature of the undertakings contemplated thereby.

And, if the works of any company (incorporated or to be incorporated) are to be declared to be for the general advantage of Canada, such intention shall be specially mentioned in the notice; and the applicants shall cause a copy of such notice to be sent by registered letter to the Clerk of each County Council and of each Municipal Corporation which may be specially affected by the construction or operation of such works, and also to the Secretary of the Province in which such works are or may be located, so as to reach those officers not less than five weeks before the consideration of the petition by the Committee of Standing Orders; and a statutory declaration establishing the fact of such mailing shall be sent to the Clerk of the Senate.

All such notices, whether inserted in the Canada Gazette or in a newspaper, shall be published at least once a week for a period of five consecutive weeks; and when published in the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba, shall be in both the English and French languages; and marked copies of each issue of all newspapers containing any such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of the Senate, endorsed "Private Bill Notice"; or a statutory declaration as to due publication may be sent in lieu thereof.

For fuller particulars, see the Rules of the Senate relative thereto published in the Canada Gazette, or apply at this office.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO
PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867,"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicant; such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in each Electoral District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest Electoral Districts in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House, to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this

oc3

Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. (At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 25th, 1910.

THORNTON FELL,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and registered are:—

First: To carry on in the State of Washington and elsewhere the trades and businesses of lumberers and timber merchants, producers, manufacturers of and dealers in lumber, shingles, and other timber products; to purchase or otherwise acquire, own, hold, sell, lease, or otherwise transfer timber lands, tide-lands, shore-lands, and any and all other kinds of real estate and water-front property, either in fee or by any lesser title or interest therein; to construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, operate, sell, or otherwise transfer sawmills, shingle-mills, sash and door factories, and other mills and factories for the manufacture of lumber, shingles, and any and all other forms of lumber products:

Second: To carry on and conduct a general logging business in the State of Washington, and for that purpose to construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, operate, sell, or otherwise transfer logging-roads, logging-railroads, tramways, chutes, rollways, donkey-engines, logging camps, and any and all facilities of every name, nature, and description in anywise used in or convenient for the carrying-on or conducting of such logging business:

Third: To purchase or otherwise acquire, own, hold, sell, or otherwise transfer and generally to deal in logs, spurs, piles, poles, shingle-bolts, cord-wood, shingles, and lumber, and any and all forms of manufactured timber products of every kind and description whatsoever:

Fourth: To carry on and conduct a logging-railroad business, and for that purpose to purchase or otherwise acquire, own, operate, sell, and transfer railroads, rights-of-way, franchises, locomotives, cars, rollways, booming-grounds, and any and all other facilities necessary or convenient for the carrying-on or conducting of such logging-railroad business:

Fifth: To carry on and conduct a general railroad business as a common carrier for hire of passengers and freight, and for that purpose to construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, operate, sell, and transfer such railroads, as well as rights-of-way, terminal grounds, depots, branch lines and switches, franchises, locomotives, cars, rollways, booming-grounds, freight-yards, and terminals, and any and all other facilities necessary or convenient in the carrying-on or conducting of such railroad business; and for the purpose of carrying out any of the objects or purposes in this section set forth, to purchase or otherwise acquire any such railroad now constructed or operated in the State of Washington, or hereafter so constructed in said State, either by the purchase of the same outright, or by the acquisition and ownership of all or any portion of the capital stock of such corporation:

Sixth: To deal in goods, wares, and merchandise as a merchant, and to maintain and conduct hotels, cook-houses, and boarding-houses:

Seventh: To build, construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire, equip, own, operate, maintain, sell, or otherwise transfer tug-boats, tow-boats, or other steam or other power vessels, as well as scows, barges, and other vessels, and to carry on therewith a general towage and transportation business upon the waters of Puget Sound and of British Columbia, and the tributaries thereof, and to construct, purchase, or otherwise acquire, maintain, and operate wharves, warehouses, and other similar structures for the convenience of commerce, and to carry on a general wharfage and warehouse business:

Eighth: To construct, buy, or otherwise acquire, own, operate, sell, or otherwise transfer telephone and telegraph lines or appliances and all franchises in anywise appertaining thereto, and to carry on and conduct a telephone and telegraph and wireless-telegraph business as incident to the other purposes and business of this corporation:

Ninth: To acquire by condemnation or other legal method authorized by the laws of the State of Washington rights-of-way for the purpose of carrying out any of the purposes and objects of this corporation, and to exercise the right of eminent domain in said State as may now or hereafter be conferred upon this and like corporations:

Tenth: To acquire by location, purchase, condemnation, or otherwise water rights and water-powers, and to purchase, condemn, or otherwise acquire rights-of-way, ditches, flumes, conduits, tunnels, dams, or other means of transporting and utilizing water, and to control, transport, and utilize water and water-powers for the transportation of lumber and timber products, or for the generation of electric or other power for the carrying-on or conducting of any of the branches of business of this corporation:

Eleventh: To acquire and take by grant, purchase, donation, prescription, or other lawful means lands and tenements, goods, chattels, and choses in action of every kind and description, embracing property either real, personal, or mixed, together with the increase or accessions thereof, which any natural or artificial person may of right, acquire or take, to hold the same title and in similar right, and in like manner to use, operate, better, improve, encumber, or alienate the same, in whole or in part, as any person, natural or artificial, may lawfully do:

Twelfth: To purchase or otherwise acquire, own, operate, sell, or otherwise transfer booms, logging-booms, booming-grounds, rollways, and any and all similar appliances for the holding and rafting of logs and other timber or timber products; to carry on a general log-driving and boom company business under the laws of the State of Washington, with all the rights and powers incident thereto, and to drive, catch, sort, boom, raft, hold, and deliver logs, lumber, or other timber products, and to clear out and improve rivers, streams, and other waterways in said State for the purpose of driving, sorting, holding, and delivering logs and other timber products, either for the purposes of this Company or for other persons, firms, or corporations, and to charge and collect tolls therefor:

Thirteenth: To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, sell, or otherwise transfer stock, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness of this Company, and to exchange the same or issue paid-up stock of this Company, or first-mortgage gold bonds of this Company, all or either, for timber lands, logging-railroads, logging camps, or other logging facilities, or other property of any name, nature, or description whatsoever in anywise appertaining to any of the branches of business set forth in these articles; to promote or facilitate or assist the construction, building, extension, equipment, or operation of any logging company, logging-railroad, lumber company, or other subsidiary company for the purpose of carrying on any of the branches of business mentioned in these articles of incorporation, and for that purpose to subscribe for or purchase and hold the stocks, bonds, debentures of any such company or companies, and to guarantee or otherwise secure the payment of any such bonds, debentures, or the interest thereon, or the payment of dividends on any such stocks, by the pledging or mortgaging of the property of this Company or any part thereof or otherwise:

Fourteenth: To purchase or otherwise acquire, own, hold, sell, transfer, exchange, or otherwise deal in the stocks, bonds, debentures, or other evidence of interest in or obligation of any other corporation or corporations:

Fifteenth: To carry on and conduct any or all of the purposes and objects in these articles of incorporation set forth, and to exercise the full powers of this corporation in the Province of British Columbia, and for that purpose to comply with all of the laws of the said Province of British Columbia relating to foreign corporations doing business therein:

Sixteenth: To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind soever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, and other negotiable instruments, and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures of this corporation (charged upon all or any part of this corporation's property, both present and future), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of this corporation, and other negotiable instruments:

Seventeenth: To lend or invest the moneys of this corporation not immediately required and to make advances upon such securities, stocks, and shares and other property of all kinds and in such manner as may from time to time be determined: to lend money to any company or person having dealings with this corporation for carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this corporation, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such person or company:

Eighteenth: To amalgamate with any person or persons or any corporation or company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this corporation or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or bonds or debentures of another company, or cash, as this corporation may determine:

Nineteenth: To distribute the proceeds of the sale of any of the property of this corporation among the stockholders thereof, whether the same be paid for wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or other securities, or in cash; provided, however, that no distribution amounting to a reduction of the capital stock of this Company shall be made in any manner prohibited by law:

Twentieth: To conduct any business, trade, manufacturing and commercial pursuit, and to exercise every power and authority granted or conferred by the general incorporation laws of the State of Washington under which this corporation is organized, and to do and perform any and all things necessary, proper, or convenient for the carrying-out or accomplishment of the objects and purposes herein specified. oc24

The objects for which this Company has been established and licensed are:

(a.) To acquire and take over as going concerns and to carry on the businesses now or heretofore carried on by Macdonnell & Hornberger, at or near the said Town of Macleod, by the Macleod Milling Company, the Macleod Milling Company, Limited, and Austin Cuthbert Randall, or any of them, as flour- and grist-mill proprietors, manufacturers of and dealers in flour and kindred materials, and as grain, elevator, and flour merchants, together with all the machinery, plant, appliances, processes, franchises, rights, real and personal estate, stock-in-trade, and equipment of every nature and kind of or belonging to the said parties or any of them, and all rights and privileges in connection therewith; and with the view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause "A" of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(b.) To carry on at or near the said Town of Macleod, and generally throughout the said Province of Alberta and elsewhere, the business of grain merchants and flour- and grist-mill and elevator proprietors and operators, and to buy, sell, store, clean, grade, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in wheat, oats, barley, flax, and grain of all kinds, and to make, grind, crush, manufacture, buy, sell, store, prepare for market, import, export, and deal in flour and grist of all kinds and grades, and articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which grain, flour, or grist of any kind is used, and to buy, hire, sell, manufacture, repair, let on hire, alter, improve, treat, and deal in all plant, apparatus, machines, implements, conveniences, materials, articles, and things of all kinds capable of being used in connection with or required by workmen or others for any such purposes:

(c.) To build, erect, construct on any of the so acquired premises or elsewhere, any engines, machinery, apparatus, elevators, mills, storehouses, offices, stables, and other buildings, and any roads, railway-sidings, spur lines, and other conveniences, and generally to do all things which shall be necessary for the carrying-on of the aforementioned and other kindred businesses and for the handling and disposing of all aforementioned materials:

(d.) To carry on any other business of a similar nature which in the opinion of the directors may be conveniently carried on by the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property, rights, or business:

(e.) To purchase, hold, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire for the purposes of the Company, in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, any real or personal property whatsoever or any estate or interest therein, and to mortgage, pledge, exchange, sell, let on lease, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof on such terms as the Company shall determine:

(f.) To apply for and take out, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, patent rights or inventions, copyright or secret processes which the directors may consider useful for the Company's objects or any of them, and to grant licences to use the same:

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any persons or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(h.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(i.) To enter into, ratify, confirm, adopt, execute, and carry out any agreements or arrangements with any Governments (municipal, local, or otherwise) or with any corporation that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, corporation, or authority any rights, privileges, franchises, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, agreements, rights, privileges, or concessions:

(j.) For the purposes of the Company, to borrow or secure the payment of money in such manner as the directors shall think fit, and in particular by mortgaging the real or personal property, or both, or any part thereof respectively, of the Company, or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(k.) For the purposes of the Company, to make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(l.) To purchase, take on lease, construct, maintain, and alter any building, plant, machinery, or works by the directors deemed necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(m.) Upon a majority vote of the shareholders of the Company, to sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof on such terms and for such considerations as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(o.) To do all or any of the above things in any Province or part of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(p.) To sell, transfer, or distribute all or any part of the Company's property to or among all or any of the members in specie:

(q.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company or corporation which the Company may think advisable to acquire or hold:

(r.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purposes which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(t.) Provided that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer upon the Company any powers to which the jurisdiction of the Province of Alberta does not extend, and particularly shall not be deemed to confer the right to issue promissory notes in the nature of bank-notes; and all the powers in the said memorandum of association contained shall be exercisable subject to the provisions of the laws in force in Alberta and regulations made thereto in respect of the matters therein referred to, and especially with respect to the construction and operation of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, and any other business with respect to which special laws and regulations may now or may hereafter be put in force.

(h.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any company, body, or person carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such company, body, or person, and to purchase, take, or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(i.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, or comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, or concessions:

(j.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(k.) To promote any company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with any such property, rights, or privileges:

(m.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately requiring investment in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(o.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(p.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(s.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or provisional order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(t.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of the world:

(u.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph shall, except when otherwise expressed in each paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(f.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(g.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(h.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(i.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable considerations:

(j.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(k.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(l.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia the business of a power company or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act, 1909," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia or any amendment thereof; to acquire all necessary licences therefor, and to pay all such fees and charges, to execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act, 1909":

(m.) To hire, purchase, or otherwise acquire or to construct, use, work, or carry on or let out to hire tramway, wharves, piers, sawmills, water-mills, steam-mills, waterworks, gasworks, telegraphs, telephones, or other electrical work:

(n.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(q.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(r.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(s.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(t.) To lend or advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by such persons:

(u.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(v.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(w.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch, employ, and finance expeditions, commissioners, cruisers, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprises for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms:

(x.) To purchase, discount, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of, charge, or otherwise turn to account mortgages, charges, agreements for sale of real estate, personal estate, or any interest in real or personal estate, and to transact business as real-estate and insurance agents, mortgage-brokers, financial agents, lumber, timber, mining, and stock brokers, and to buy or sell, either outright or on commission or profit, and generally to deal in or make advances upon real estate or any interest therein, timber lands, timber limits, or other properties:

(y.) To carry on business of licensed victuallers, hotelkeepers, carriers, and agents for railway and shipping companies:

(z.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(aa.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company. oc3

No. 1500 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Maritime Motor Car Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirtieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To buy, sell, manufacture, import, export, and generally to deal in automobiles, motor-trucks, taxi-cabs, motor-cycles, aeroplanes and flying-machines, steam and gasoline engines, electric motors and dynamos, cabs, hacks, carriages, wagons, and other public and private conveyances, whether mechanically propelled or otherwise, and also all apparatus, implements, parts, and things that may be required for use in the manufacturing, building, repairing, finishing, or otherwise handling any of the said vehicles, parts, or articles of a similar nature:

(b.) To carry on the business of mechanical engineers, machinists, blacksmiths, millwrights, founders, wire-drawers, tube-makers, jappers and annealers, enamellers, electroplaters, and painters, and generally to carry on the business of altering, repairing, and refitting automobiles and other vehicles:

(c.) To buy, sell, manufacture, or otherwise deal in tires, carriage-tops, paints, oils, lubricants, lamps, tools, gasoline, electric and storage batteries, and generally, without limiting the above, to buy, sell, or otherwise deal in the accessories and repairs used by automobilists and cyclists:

(d.) To maintain a general garage for the keeping, hiring, cleaning, and repairing of auto-vehicles and carriages of all kinds:

(e.) To buy, sell, import, repair, alter, and deal in machinery, implements, tools, and supplies to be used or capable of being used for any of the purposes herein mentioned, or to be used or capable of being used by contractors, miners, loggers, agriculturists, horticulturists, machinists, lumber-mill workers, and all kindred trades, or likely to be required by customers of the Company:

(f.) To construct, build, improve, alter, maintain, work, manage, carry on, or control and operate, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of any factories, foundries, repair-shops, warehouses, buildings, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and either alone or jointly with any person, firm, or corporation:

(g.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(h.) To obtain by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise any lands, buildings, or hereditaments of any tenure or description or any interest therein, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, and for the purposes of the Company to mortgage, charge, or encumber any such lands, buildings, or any interest therein in such manner as the Company may see fit, and generally to acquire or dispose of any property, whether real or personal, including mortgages, bonds, negotiable instruments, stock, or shares, of any other company:

(i.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, assets, and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(j.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by mortgage over the Company's real or personal property, or both, or any part thereof, or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, or bonds with or without interest, or conferring on the holders the right to participate in such shares of the Company's profits as may be determined, or charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without any specific charge; and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(l.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or cultivated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(o.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(p.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business; such remuneration may be in shares or stock of this Company, or in cash, or partly in cash and partly in stock: Provided, however, that the commission paid for the sale of any of the Company's shares for debenture stock shall not exceed fifteen per cent. (15%):

(q.) To do all or any of the things herein authorized in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, trustees, contractors, or otherwise, and by and through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(r.) To do all such other things as are or may be deemed incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. oc3

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1502 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Great Western Printing & Publishing Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into one hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the plant, stock-in-trade, book debts, lease, and effects and the goodwill of the business as job-printers heretofore carried on by Alexander Duncan Campbell and Frederick Levy under the firm, name, and style of "Campbell & Levy" in the premises in the basement of the Pemberton Block, City of Victoria aforesaid; and with a view thereto enter into and carry into effect an agreement bearing date the 13th day of September, A.D. 1912, and made between Alexander Duncan Campbell and Frederick Levy of the one part, and James Lansdowne Fitzmaurice, all of the City of Victoria aforesaid, of the other part, with or without modification:

(b.) To establish, print, publish, and manage a newspaper or newspapers in and circulating throughout the City of New Westminster and in the Province of British Columbia, and generally throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere, and to carry on the business of newspaper publishers, printers, typefounders, booksellers, stationers, and advertising agents, and generally to carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, either directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property, franchise, business, or rights:

(c.) To acquire, take over, and manage the whole or any part of the business, property, assets, and liabilities of any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations, carrying on any business wholly or in part similar to that which this Company is authorized to carry on, or take over and possess any property of such persons, companies, or corporations suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(d.) To apply for and obtain copyright or copyrights to any literary publications, books, pamphlets, lithographic works, or works of art, and generally to hold, transfer, and absolutely dispose of the same on such terms as the Company may think fit, and generally to carry on the business of general newsvendors, book publishers and sellers, and generally publishers and vendors of all literary work and works of art, newspapers, and periodicals:

(e.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing the profits, union of interest, or co-operation with any person, partnership, or company, or otherwise with any person or persons carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money or guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take and otherwise acquire shares, stock, and securities of any such company, and to sell, dispose of, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(f.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having altogether or in part similar objects of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to benefit this Company in any manner whatsoever, as to the directors of this Company shall be deemed expedient; or generally to acquire, purchase, take, carry on, manage, and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, assets, and liabilities of any person, partnership, or company carrying on any business such as this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is similar to any of the objects of this Company, or which is possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(g.) To enter into any arrangement with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities or Governments any rights, privileges, and concessions which the directors may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, assets, and liabilities of said Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(i.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights and privileges which to the said Company may seem necessary or convenient to the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, leases, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade, and other appurtenances incidental and necessary to the business of this Company:

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately in use in such manner as may from time to time be determined; to lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and particularly to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the fulfilment of contracts by any such person or persons:

(k.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall see fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's assets, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities from time to time:

(l.) To recompense any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in organizing or assisting to reorganize this Company or the promotion thereof, and in placing or assisting to place any of the shares of the Company's capital, debentures, or other securities of this Company, or generally in or about the promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(m.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(n.) To undertake and execute any trusts the undertaking whereof may seem desirable, either gratuitously or otherwise for reward:

(o.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for the shares, debentures, and securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To adopt such means of making known the business of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by contests, by purchase and exhibition of such things as may seem expedient to the directors, and by publication of books, periodicals, and by grants, rewards, and donations:

(q.) To obtain any provision or order or Act of Parliament in the Legislature to enable the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, mortgage, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(s.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(t.) To acquire by surrender or otherwise the whole or any part of the interest of any member of the Company herein:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person (whether he is a member of the Company or not) or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To retain solicitors and attorneys:

(w.) To establish, carry on, undertake, and manage the business of lithographers, job-printers, compositors, bookbinders, general binders' business, publishers, and generally all kinds and sorts of job-printing and publishing work, electroplating, engraving, and allied work:

(x.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company rendering services to the Company, either for the sale of stock of the Company or otherwise, whether by cash payment or allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise (whether he is a member of the Company or not):

(y.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any real or personal property, goods or chattels, or shares of stock of any company purchased or acquired by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(z.) To do all such other things as shall be incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this memorandum, except when used with reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the British Dominions or elsewhere.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To adopt and carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between Frank A. Briggs of the one part, and Paul McD. Kerr, on behalf of the Company, of the other part, and is to be signed immediately after the incorporation of the Company, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been subscribed by William A. Cantelon, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia:

(2.) To acquire tracts of land in the Province of British Columbia or any other Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere when by law allowed, with the object of subdividing the same into lots, and selling such lots when so subdivided as aforesaid, and as incidental to the above principal and main business the Company has the following further objects:—

(3.) To acquire by staking, purchase, pre-emption, or otherwise, and to hold, manage, work, improve, sell, and turn to account, any lands and hereditaments in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to subdivide, sell, manage, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of the same or any subdivision or part thereof, or any interest therein:

(4.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, pre-empt, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any timber lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and any rights or privileges which may be necessary for the purposes of the Company's business:

(5.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-power, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any channel or channels:

(6.) To aid, assist, encourage, and promote immigration and the settlement and colonization of the said lands, and for the purpose aforesaid to lend or grant such sums of money as may seem necessary in the premises:

(7.) To found and establish towns, villages, and settlements, and to lay out the lands of the Company in town, suburban, or other lots, parks, cemeteries, farm and experimental plots of such area as may be thought fit; and to train young men and others for stock-farming and general agriculture:

(8.) To own, purchase, construct, build, and operate hotels, boarding-houses, rooming-houses, dwelling-houses, and other structures, and to let out the same on hire and to collect the rents for same, and to own, acquire, and operate wholesale and retail stores, and to carry on a general agency and commission business:

(9.) To carry on, either solely or in conjunction with any other person, company, or corporation, the business of real-estate agents and brokers, insurance agents, and similar businesses in all their branches:

(10.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(11.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint-stock companies, or societies anonymes for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada, Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere; to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(12.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(13.) To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind soever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptance, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company and other negotiable instruments:

(14.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the Company:

(15.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(16.) To cause this Company to be registered or licensed to do business and to carry out its objects in any Province of the Dominion of Canada, or in any State of the United States of America, or in any other country or place. oc17

To carry on the business of foresters, timber merchants, sawmill and planing-mill proprietors, and timbermen in all or any of its branches, producers, manufacturers of and dealers in wood-pulp, and makers of and dealers in paper of all kinds and articles made from paper or pulp and materials used in the manufacture or treatment of paper, including cardboard and millboard, and to buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, export, import, and deal in saw-logs, timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber is used or forms a component part:

(c.) To develop or to acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise steam, electric, pneumatic, hydraulic, or other power or force, and to use, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(d.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-powers, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any channel or channels:

(e.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere the business of a power company or any business of the Company within the meaning of the "Water Act" of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, and to acquire any necessary licences therefor; to pay all such fees and charges, and execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor:

(f.) To sell, assign, and transfer to another company lawfully empowered in that behalf the Company's licence or licences, undertakings and works as a power company:

(g.) To construct, maintain, and operate single- or double-track or aerial or other tramways, with the necessary side-tracks and turnouts for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway, upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highways, roads, streets, bridges which are in the line of the tramway intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway:

(h.) To take, transfer, and carry passengers, merchandise, and goods of all kinds on the tramway by any motive power now used or that may be afterwards discovered:

(i.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems, and to charge and collect rents and tolls in respect of the same:

(j.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels, and to carry on the business of towing, freightering, and lightering, and of the conveyance of passengers and of carriers by land and water, scow-owners, barge-owners, dredge-owners, shipping agents and forwarding agents, warehousemen and wharfingers:

(k.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, mortgage, manage, improve, turn to account, dispose of, or otherwise deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto which the Company may deem to be necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, tools and implements, and stock-in-trade:

(l.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(m.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint-stock companies, or societies anonymes for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada, Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere; to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(n.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(o.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(p.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person, corporation, or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be carried on so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(q.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of the Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company, or cash, as the Company may think fit; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(r.) To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind soever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company, and other negotiable instruments:

(s.) To register or license the Company in any other part of the British Empire or elsewhere:

(t.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the Company:

(u.) To do all or any of the above things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(v.) To do all such things and to carry on such businesses as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

places, and the supply of gas and electric light, heat, and power for any or all private or public purposes, and to perform and enforce such contracts:

(f.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-power, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water or water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the water of any stream, pond, or lake into any channel or channels:

(g.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere the business of a power company or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act, 1909," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia; to acquire any necessary licences therefor, and to pay all such fees and charges, and to execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act, 1909," and of the "Power Company Relief Act, 1902":

(h.) To sell, assign, or transfer to another company lawfully empowered in that behalf the Company's licence or licences, undertakings and works as a power company:

(i.) To promote, acquire, construct, hire, equip, maintain, improve, work, manage, or control, or aid in or subscribe towards promotion, acquisition, construction, hiring, equipment, maintenance, improvement, working, management, or control of, works, undertakings, and operations of any kind which may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company or any of them, and in particular roads, ships, scows, launches, lighters, tramways, branches and sidings, harbours, piers, docks, quays, wharves, warehouses, bridges, viaducts, aqueducts, reservoirs, embankments, waterworks, watercourses, canals, pipe-lines, flumes, irrigations, drainage, telegraph or telephone systems, carrying undertakings by land and water, roads, trails, markets, exchanges, public and private buildings, newspapers and publication establishments, hotels, residences, stores, shops, and places of amusement, recreation, or instruction:

(j.) To construct, maintain, and operate single- or double-track or aerial or other tramways, with all necessary side-tracks and turnouts thereon for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway, upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highways, roads, streets, or bridges which are in the line of any tramway built or intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway:

(k.) To carry on the business of shipping agents and forwarding agents, warehousemen and wharfingers:

(l.) To undertake and carry on any business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the objects of the Company, or which may be thought calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(m.) To perform, for the benefit of any other corporation, company, firm, or person, any act, work, operation, or thing which the Company might do or undertake for themselves, whether for reward or gratuitously, or as part of any arrangement or under any contract:

(n.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms, with or without security, as may seem expedient, and in particular as part of any contract for the acquisition of property or rights, or for the benefit of persons having dealings with the Company:

(o.) To lend or advance money to such person or persons, company or companies, on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers to and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any person or persons whomsoever, with power to take security for such advances upon freehold and leasehold land, stock and stations, wool, cattle, produce, crops, shares, securities, merchandise, and other property, real or personal:

(p.) To draw, make, accept, issue, endorse, or discount bills of exchange, promissory notes, drafts, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(q.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company in such manner and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and to secure the repayment of moneys borrowed or owing and the performance of obligations incurred by the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(s.) To issue redeemable or irredeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock (such bonds, debentures, or debenture stock being made payable to bearer or otherwise, and issuable or payable either at par or at a premium or discount), or by mortgage, trust deed, scrip certificates, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or by any other instrument, or in such other manner as may be determined, and for any such purposes to charge all or any part of the property and assets of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(t.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and, to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(u.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, including the right to apply for, receive, and hold any liquor licence or licences in accordance with any Acts, by-laws, or regulations of the Province of British Columbia or any municipality therein or elsewhere wheresoever, and to carry on all business which may be carried on under and by virtue of the said licence or licences; and to carry on, exercise, and comply with such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(v.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any inventions which may seem capable of being used to the advantage or benefit of the Company; and to use, exercise, and develop or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property or information acquired:

(w.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(x.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(y.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to sell, exchange, lease, under-lease, surrender, or otherwise deal with, either absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the undertaking, property, rights, or privileges of the Company, as a going concern or otherwise, to any public body, corporation, company, society, or association, or to any person or persons, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any stock, shares (whether wholly or partly paid), debentures, debenture stock, securities, or property of any other company:

(z.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company, or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(aa.) To obtain or in any way assist in obtaining any provisional order or Act of Parliament, decree, rescript, or other necessary authority for enabling this or any other company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of this or any other company's constitution; to procure this or any other company to be legalized, registered, or incorporated, if necessary, in accordance with the laws of any country or State in which it may propose to carry on operations; to establish and maintain agencies of the Company and to open and keep a register or registers of this or any other company in any other British colony or dependency, and to allocate any number of the shares in this or any other company to such register or registers:

(bb.) To effect insurances and pay premiums or become a member of any society or association for mutual assurance, and pay calls or otherwise contribute to the funds of any such society or association:

(cc.) To distribute any of the assets or property of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(dd.) To do all or any of the above things either as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents or otherwise, and with power to appoint a trustee or trustees, corporate or unincorporate, to hold any property on behalf of the Company, and to allow any property to remain outstanding in such trustee or trustees:

(ee.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of powder, dynamite, and explosives, and the various articles required for the manufacture of the same, and all articles, substances, materials, appliances, or things composed wholly or in part thereof or required therefor or incidental thereto, and for the manufacture, preparation, or use thereof, and the packing, care, storing, or use or disposition thereof; and to manufacture, buy, sell, or deal in muriatic, sulphuric, nitric, and mixed acids, chemical manures, sulphate of copper, sulphate of iron, nitrate of lead, soda crystals, bicarbonate of soda, alum, and all kinds of chemicals, the chemical treatment of copper and other metallic ores, and the distillation and treatment of coal-tar and all kinds of chemicals, chemical apparatus, boxes, cans, glassware, earthenware, and other substances and things capable of being used in any such business as aforesaid, or which may be required by any customers of or persons having any dealings with the Company, either by wholesale or retail, in any way relating thereto:

(2.) To purchase and acquire all or any machinery, plant, furniture, buildings, goods, chattels, and effects required or which may be deemed necessary for the conduct of the Company's business:

(3.) To manufacture, buy, sell, refine, import, export, and to deal in all kinds of boxes, machines, tools, cans, glassware, earthenware, articles aforesaid, apparatus, and things or process or products thereof capable of being used in any or in connection with the objects aforesaid, or required or which may be required by any customers of or by persons having any dealings with the Company in connection with any such objects, either by wholesale or by retail:

(4.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business or any part or parts thereof, and in conjunction therewith any lands, buildings, foreshore grants, leases, or rights or easements:

(5.) To construct, equip, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control any buildings, roads, ways, or tramways, telegraph or telephone lines or branches thereof, bridges, reservoirs, flumes, dams, watercourses, wharves, manufacturing, warehouses, ice-houses, sawmills, refrigerators, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interest:

(6.) To contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, control, carrying-out, maintenance, working, or management of all or any of such objects:

(7.) To erect, build, construct, and equip all and every kind of plant deemed by the Company or the directors thereof to be requisite for all or any of the purposes aforesaid:

(8.) To acquire, construct, own, charter, operate, and manage ships, boats, tugs, barges, and vessels of all kinds, and all or any wharves, docks, warehouses, elevators, and buildings which may be deemed necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(9.) To originate, develop, construct, or acquire in any way (by purchase, lease, or otherwise howsoever) and to operate works for the production, sale, and use or sale and disposal of water, and of steam, hydraulic, electrical, pneumatic, and all or any power or force:

(10.) To acquire water and licences to use water for any of the objects enumerated in the objects of the Company, or for the use or supply of water in any way authorized by the "Water Act":

(11.) To create, produce, develop, deal in, and supply and dispose of water and power derived therefrom, and to acquire, hold, and exercise all or any of the rights, powers, and privileges of a power company under the "Water Act":

(12.) To apply for, purchase, or acquire any patents, licences, trade-marks, copyrights, or concessions conferring any right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem to be calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(13.) To enter into any agreements with any Governments, authorities, or corporations (Dominion, Provincial, municipal, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority or corporation any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(14.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to carry on and undertake all or any part of the business, property, assets, or liabilities of any company, partnership, or person carrying on business with objects similar in whole or in part to those of this Company, or possessed of property suitable or proper for the purposes of this Company:

(15.) To purchase, acquire, hold, and own capital stock, shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other corporation, company, or individual carrying on or engaged in any business which this Company is empowered to carry on or engage in, and wheresoever the domicile of such corporation, company, or individual may be, and to acquire, hold, pledge, or otherwise dispose of such shares, bonds, or other securities:

(16.) To issue paid-up stock, shares, bonds, or debentures for the payment, either in whole or in part, of any property, real or personal, rights, claims, privileges, concessions, or other advantages which the Company may lawfully acquire, and also to issue such fully paid stock, shares, bonds, or other securities in payment, part payment, or exchange for the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company doing a business similar in whole or in part or incidental to the business of this Company:

(17.) To enter into any arrangements for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any company, corporation, partnership, or individual carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to engage in or carry on, or to amalgamate with any such other company:

(18.) To sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of the property, rights, business, or undertaking of the Company or any part or parts thereof for such consideration as may be agreed upon, and in particular for shares, stock, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(19.) To hold, sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the Company:

(20.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(21.) To create or support or aid in the establishment and support of, or to make donations to, associations, institutions, pensions or other funds, trusts, and schemes formed for the purpose of benefiting employees of the Company, or the dependents of employees or the connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful good:

(22.) To pay commissions to or remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the formation or the promotion of the Company, or in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the conduct of its business:

(23.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and such other negotiable or transferable instruments so far as a company incorporated under the "Companies Act" may lawfully do:

(24.) To subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stock, debentures, or securities, Dominion, Provincial, municipal, or local authority, or of any company:

(25.) To distribute the property of the Company or any part thereof, or any shares, stock, debentures, bonds, or securities which may be assigned by this Company in any other company, among the members in specie:

(26.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. oc3 canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigation, clearing, grading, reclamation, improvement, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephonic, telegraphic, and power-supply works, hotels, warehouses, markets, and public and private buildings, and all other works and conveniences of public utility or for private use, and to sell and sublet all or any of such contracts in whole or in part:

(d.) To carry on the business of miners, metallurgists, builders and contractors, engineers, land-owners, farmers, graziers, ship-owners, barge and scow owners and builders, ship owners and builders, boat owners and builders, merchants, importers and exporters, and to buy, sell, and deal in builders and contractors' materials, wood, timber, lumber, stone, sand, lime, bricks, iron and steel goods, hardware, and other builders' requisites and property of all kinds, and to undertake all kinds of repair-work and contracting:

(e.) To establish and found or assist in the establishment and foundation of towns, villages, and settlements, and to lay out the lands of the Company in town suburban and other lots, parks, pleasure resorts, farm and experimental plots of such area as may be thought fit, and to manage, develop, make advances on, sell, or otherwise deal with or dispose of any interest or rights in and over any such lands and any real or personal property of any description:

(f.) To carry on the business of house-decorators, painters, furniture-dealers, repairers, heating engineers, contractors for supply of light, heat, and power in all branches, and to acquire, lay out, and operate and maintain workshops, factories, power-houses and plant, machinery, and equipment of every description for the development, generation, transmission, or utilization of gas, water, steam, electric, pneumatic, and other powers and structures, plant, machinery, and equipment for any form of heating, lighting, and supply of power, and to undertake and enter into contracts for the supply of light, heat, and power to public and private buildings, towns, cities, and streets:

(g.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, issue, reissue, sell, place, and deal in shares, stock, bonds, debentures, and securities of all kinds, and to give any guarantee or security for the payment of dividends or interest thereon or otherwise in relation thereto:

(h.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(i.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(j.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangements with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part,

with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(k.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable considerations:

(l.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash fully paid shares or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company, or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(m.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(n.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia the business of a power company or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act, 1909," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia or any amendment thereof; to acquire all necessary licences therefor, and to pay all such fees and charges, to execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act, 1909":

(o.) To hire, purchase, or otherwise acquire or to construct, use, work, or carry on or let out to hire tramway, wharves, piers, sawmills, watermills, steam-mills, waterworks, gasworks, telegraphs, telephones, or other electrical work:

(p.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(q.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(r.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(s.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(t.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(u.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(v.) To lend or advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by such persons:

(w.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(x.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(y.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch, employ, and finance expeditions, commissioners, cruisers, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprise for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms:

(z.) To purchase, discount, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of, charge, or otherwise turn to account mortgages, charges, agreements for sale of real estate, personal estate, or any interest in real or personal estate, and to transact business as real-estate and insurance agents, mortgage-brokers, financial agents, lumber, timber, mining, and stock brokers, and to buy or sell, either outright or on commission or profit, and generally to deal in or make advances upon real estate or any interest therein, timber lands, timber limits, or other properties:

(aa.) To carry on the business of licensed victuallers, hotelkeepers, carriers, and agents for railway and shipping companies:

(bb.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(cc.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent Company. oc3

"COMPANIES ACT."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a copy of the memorandum of association of "The Wright Investment Company, Limited," as altered by a special resolution of the said Company passed on the twenty-fourth day of July, 1912, and confirmed on the twenty-fourth day of August, 1912, together with an office copy of the order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Murphy, dated the eleventh day of September, 1912, confirming the alterations made in said memorandum of association in and by said special resolution, has been delivered to me by the said Company, and has been registered by me on the day of the date hereof.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects of the Company, as altered, are as follows:

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on at Vancouver and Nelson, in the Province of British Columbia, under the style or firm of "The Wright Investment Company," and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the proprietors of that business in connection therewith, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause two (2) of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(b.) To carry on business as capitalists, financiers, concessionaires, insurance agents, estate agents, and merchants, and to undertake and carry on and execute all kinds of financial, commercial, trading, and other operations, and to carry on any other business (except the issuing of policies of insurance) which may seem to be capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of these objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, except the business of a trust company as defined in section 2 of chapter 9 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1911:

(c.) To guarantee or become liable for the payment of money or for the performance of any obligation, and generally to transact all kinds of guarantee business:

(d.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and deal in real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, patents, and licences, shares, stocks, debentures, securities, policies, book debts, claims, agreements for the sale and purchase of land, timber and timber leases and licences, and any interest in real or personal property, and any claims against such property or against any persons or company, and choses in action of all kinds:

(e.) To negotiate loans and to advance or lend any of the capital or other moneys of the Company for the time being on the security of freeholds, leaseholds, mortgages, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, stock-in-trade, steam or other vessels or shares or interest therein, chattels, and any other property, real or personal, upon such terms as may be agreed:

(f.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, accept, sign, endorse, discount, or negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments, or to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, and negotiate debentures or debenture stock, provided the repayment of any such mortgage or debenture charge shall not be procured by the investment of funds of the Company at interest upon real or personal securities:

(f-1.) To lend or advance money on such terms as may seem expedient:

(g.) To issue on commission, subscribe for, take and acquire and hold, sell, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities of any Government authority or company:

(h.) To form, promote, subsidize, and assist syndicates and partnerships of all kinds:

(j.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profit, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue the same, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(k.) To carry on all kinds of exploration business, and in particular to search for, prospect, examine, and explore mines and ground supposed to contain minerals or precious stones, and to search for and obtain information in regard to mines, mining claims, mining districts, and localities:

(l.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to sell, dispose of, and deal with mines and mining rights and property supposed to contain minerals or precious stones of all kinds, and undertakings connected therewith, and to work, exercise, develop, and turn to account mines and mining rights and any undertakings connected therewith, and to buy, sell, refine, manipulate, and deal in minerals of all kinds:

(m.) To furnish and provide deposits and guarantee funds required in relation to any application for any contract, concession, decree, enactment, property, or privilege, or in relation to the carrying-out of any contract, concession, decree, or enactment:

(n.) To consider, originate, and support improvements in the law which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects, and to resist and oppose alterations therein which may seem to the Company, directly or indirectly, adverse to the interests of the Company or its members or any section thereof:

(o.) To take or concur in taking all such steps and proceedings as may seem best calculated to uphold and support the credit of the Company, and to obtain and justify public confidence, and to avert or minimize financial disturbances which might affect the Company:

(p.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the objects of the Company or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any grants of land, timber, water rights, rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(r.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(s.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, tramways, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(t.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(u.) To remunerate any person for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To sell and dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring such undertaking or any part thereof, and for any other purpose which may seem, either directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(w.) To sell, assign, transfer, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company:

(x.) To carry on business and do any of the things set out herein in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any Province of the Dominion of Canada and in any foreign country or place:

(y.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(z.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraphs, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To manufacture and sell double-trees and patent improvements thereon:

(b.) To purchase, acquire, dispose of, and deal in patent rights in double-trees and improvements thereon:

(c.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, mortgage, manage, improve, turn to account, dispose of, or otherwise deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto which the Company may deem to be necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business or otherwise, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, tools and implements, and stock-in-trade; and the consideration for same may be cash or shares of the Company, or part cash and part shares:

(d.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(e.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint-stock company, or societies anonymes for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada, Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere; to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(f.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person, corporation, or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be carried on so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(g.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of the Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company, or cash, as the Company may think fit; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(h.) To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind soever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptance, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company, and other negotiable instruments:

(i.) To do all or any of the above things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(j.) To do all such things and to carry on such businesses as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(e.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, test, and to employ experts and other agents:

(f.) To develop the resources of and turn to account any lands, buildings, mines, timber lands, or other property of the Company for the time being in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, road-making, building, improving, farming, mining, irrigating, and by promoting immigration, and by establishing towns and settlements:

(g.) To erect buildings, houses, factories, and all other buildings necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Company; to sell the same, either for cash or upon terms, as may seem advisable to the Company; and to construct and maintain and alter any houses, buildings, or works that may be thought necessary for the purposes of the Company:

(h.) To buy, sell, mine and work, manufacture and make merchantable, and deal in all or any minerals or metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, stone, coal, oil, earth, or other matters or things whatsoever, and to acquire, develop, and turn to account any undertakings connected therewith:

(i.) To buy, sell, import, export, manipulate, prepare for market, and deal in merchandise and produce of all kinds, and generally to carry on business as merchants, importers, and exporters:

(j.) To transact and carry on all kinds of agency business, mercantile, financial, or otherwise:

(k.) To carry on all kinds of promotion business, and in particular to form, constitute, float, lend money to, assist, and control any companies, associations, and undertakings whatsoever:

(l.) To act as trustees for the holders of or otherwise in relation to any debentures, bonds, or debenture stock issued or to be issued by any company, and generally to undertake and execute any trusts the undertaking whereof may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(m.) To subscribe for, conditionally or unconditionally, underwrite, issue on commission or otherwise, take, hold, purchase, deal in, and convert stock, shares, and securities of all kinds:

(n.) To lend or advance moneys on such terms and on such securities as may seem expedient, and to receive money on deposit at interest or otherwise:

(o.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by pledging or mortgaging any of the Company's real property or assets, and by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the property of the Company, both presently available and future and contingent, including its uncalled and unpaid capital, and to redeem and pay off any such security:

(p.) To construct, carry out, and maintain, improve, manage, and work, control, and superintend any trails, roadways, tramways, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, wharves, docks, furnaces, sawmills, reduction-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, electric works, drainage-works, irrigation-works, telegraphs, telephones, hotels, warehouses, stores, buildings, and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and to contribute or otherwise assist in the carrying-out, establishment, construction, maintenance, improvement, management, working, control, or superintendence of the same:

(q.) To apply for, acquire, purchase, and dispose of water records under the "Water Act, 1909," or any amendments thereto, for domestic, mechanical, or industrial purposes, and for any of the purposes of the Company, and to acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company under said Act:

(r.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(s.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(t.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(u.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(v.) To manage lands, buildings, and other properties, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and incomes; to make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of said Company and promote the objects and business of said Company:

(w.) To amalgamate with any other company having powers wholly or in part similar to the powers of this Company, and to amalgamate or enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits with any other company or person carrying on or about to carry on similar business to this Company:

(x.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(y.) To invest moneys of the Company not immediately required and to make advances for the purposes of the Company on stock, shares, and other securities, and on property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(z.) To particularly carry on the business of acquiring and purchasing lands and real estate for the purpose of holding same and disposing of said lands from time to time as to the Company may seem desirable:

(a1.) To carry on the business of sawmill proprietors and lumbermen in all its branches; to buy, sell, prepare for market, import, export, and deal in timber, lumber, railroad-ties, piling, pulp-wood, telegraph and telephone poles, fence-posts, and wood of all kinds; to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which wood is used or forms a component part, and to purchase, sell, and deal in timber lands and timber berths:

(b1.) To carry on any other business which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of this Company's property or rights for the time being:

(c1.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any other valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(d1.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instrument:

(e1.) To distribute any of the property of this Company among the members in specie:

(f1.) To procure this Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or Territory in the Dominion of Canada, or in any Province, country, or place:

(g1.) To do all such other acts as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority.

(3.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to sell or otherwise dispose of, exchange, lease, rent, mortgage, or otherwise encumber lands, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land:

(4.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property and assets:

(5.) To borrow money on security of the whole or any part of property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(6.) To lend, deposit, or advance money, securities, or property to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments, and in all respects to have and enjoy the same powers and privileges with regard to lending its money and transacting its business as a private individual could have and enjoy:

(7.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein-stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(8.) To act and conduct business as financial, insurance, collection, real-estate, house, special, and general agents and brokers; to acquire agencies and to be appointed agent for any person, firm, or corporation; to act generally as appraiser, valuator, or adjuster of real estate, personal estate, stocks, goods, and chattels, or for any other lawful purpose; to act as accountant and auditor, and to assume and perform such duties as are or may be performed by accountants and auditors:

(9.) To buy, take by grant, assignment, devise, bequest, or otherwise acquire title to and to sell and transfer, mortgage and hypothecate any Provincial, railway, municipal, and other bonds or debentures of any kind whatsoever, and stock and shares in companies, banks, or building societies and other securities; to countersign certificates of stock, bonds, or other obligations of any kind whatsoever; to invest and manage any sinking fund of any kind for any municipality or corporation on such terms as may be agreed upon; to guarantee any investment made by the Company as agent or otherwise:

(10.) To act as representative or proxy for any person, firm, or corporation for any lawful purpose; to collect money due or owing in any way to any person, firm, estate, or corporation; to employ solicitors, attorneys, or counsel for any lawful purpose; to enter and prosecute, compromise and settle, and represent persons interested in actions, causes of action, and suits of every kind, and to take proceedings in Courts of law pertaining to or which may appear necessary or advantageous in connection with its business or objects; to act as attorneys in fact for any lawful purpose:

(11.) To purchase, lease, construct, and hold or otherwise acquire foreshore with territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, real and personal property, patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves, and other buildings and easements, and to sell, lease, or mortgage the same or any part thereof:

(12.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on, or engage in any business transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares or stock or securities in any company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to promote, incorporate, and finance companies, and to hold, buy, sell, mortgage, or hypothecate, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with shares or securities of any company:

(13.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(14.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(15.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(16.) To do all or any of the above things in any of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in such Provinces or country:

(17.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by manufacturers, merchants, agents, or financiers; to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen, and not to restrict, the powers of the Company. oc10

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To enter into and carry into effect (either with or without modification) a certain agreement which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between this Company of the one part, and E. D'Alton Rorke and J. Hillyard Rorke of the other part, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been endorsed with the signature of Mr. A. E. Garrett:

(b.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise (whether for cash or capital stock of this Company, or by debentures of this Company, or partly for cash and partly for capital stock of this Company, or partly by debentures of this Company, or both, or in any other lawful manner), hold, improve, manage, work, develop, exercise all rights in respect of, lease, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with property of all kinds, and in particular real estate, lands, business concerns, apartment-houses, hotels, boarding-houses, and undertakings (whether incorporated or not), mortgages, charges, annuities, patents, stocks, shares, debentures, securities of any kind, and privileges over lands, and any interest in real or personal property, and any charges against such property or against any person or company:

(c.) To purchase, contract for, erect, build, construct, contract for erection of, procure, use, rent, exchange, license, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of all kinds of buildings, houses, apartment-houses, boarding-houses, hotels, warehouses, offices, factories, or any erections, machinery, or works by which the profits or property of the Company may be improved or advantaged, and whether situate on the Company's property or otherwise:

(d.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking:

(e.) To negotiate loans, and act as agents for the loan, payment, transmission, investment, and collection of interest, rent, and other moneys, and for the management and the realization of property, and generally to transact all kinds of agency business:

(f.) To offer for public subscription any shares or stock in the capital of or debentures or debenture stock or other securities of any company, association, undertaking, or public or private body:

(g.) To form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company or otherwise:

(h.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures, debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(i.) (f.) To purchase, acquire, and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or which is possessed of property deemed to be suitable for the purpose of this Company; and to enter into any partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(g.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable considerations:

(h.) To promote, form, organize, and register and to aid and assist in promotion, formation, organization, and registration of any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other Company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention, or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights and privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(j.) To adopt such means of making known the property and purposes of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by the publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(k.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise in British Columbia or elsewhere any land, with or without buildings or erections thereon, which may seem suitable for the business of the Company, and to pull down, alter, or reconstruct any such buildings, and erect any other building or buildings on such land:

(l.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(o.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(q.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(r.) To lend or advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by such persons:

(s.) To borrow or raise money on any terms and conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(t.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company. oc10

(g.) To carry on all or any of the following businesses: Builders and contractors, decorators, merchants, and dealers in stone, sand, lime, bricks, timber, hardware, and other building requisites, brick, tile, and terra-cotta makers, jobmasters, carriers, licensed victuallers, and house agents:

(h.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic with land and houses and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold Crown lands, and to make advances upon the security of the lands or houses or other property or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise, the lands and house property, and any other property, whether real or personal:

(i.) To manage lands, buildings, and other property, whosoever situate, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and supply to tenants and occupiers and others refreshments, attendants, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, and other advantages:

(j.) To acquire and take over any business or undertaking carried on upon or in connection with any land or building which the Company may desire to acquire or become interested in, and the whole or any of the assets and liabilities of such business or undertaking, and to carry on the same or to dispose of, remove, or put an end thereto, or otherwise deal with the same as may seem expedient:

(k.) To establish and carry on and to promote the establishing and carrying-on upon any property in which the Company is interested any business which may be conveniently carried on or in connection with such property, and the establishing of which may seem calculated to enhance the value of the Company's interest in such property, or to facilitate the disposal thereof:

(l.) To develop the resources of and turn to account the lands, buildings, and rights for the time being of the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, fencing, planting, building improving, farming, grazing, mining, and by promoting immigration and establishing towns, villages, and settlements:

(m.) To carry on the business of farmers, graziers, meat and fruit preservers, brewers, planters, miners, metallurgists, quarry-owners, brick-makers, building contractors for the construction of work, both public and private, merchants, importers and exporters, printers, publishers, bankers, shipbuilders, ship-owners, brokers, and any other business which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to develop the Company's property:

(n.) To establish and support or to aid in the establishment and support of a friendly or mutual-benefit society or club, together with funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit any persons dealing or connected with the Company:

(o.) To act as executors, administrators, receiver, liquidator, assignee, or trustee of any property, real or personal; to act as bailee of any and all kinds of personal property; to act as guardian of the persons and estates of infants and as attorney on behalf of any person, persons, or corporation:

(p.) To carry on the business of a safe-deposit and investment company, financial agents, mining-brokers, auctioneers, valuers, and generally to carry on any agency and brokerage business in all its branches:

(q.) To guarantee the payment of debts or interest on any stocks, shares, debentures, or other securities issued by any company, or any other contract or obligation of any such company, association, or public or private body:

(r.) To contract and execute, carry out, acquire, improve, work, develop, administer, manage, or control, in British Columbia and elsewhere, public works and conveniences of all kinds, which expression in this memorandum includes tramways, docks, harbours, piers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigations, reclamation, improvements, sewage, drainage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephone, and telegraphic and power-supply works, warehouses, and all other works for public utility:

(s.) To carry on business as dealers, merchants, sawmill proprietors, and timber-growers, and to buy, sell, grow, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber and wood of all kinds, and to buy, acquire, plant, and work the timber estates:

(t.) To carry on, acquire, and undertake any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(u.) To accumulate, enter into partnership, or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(v.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(w.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(x.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(y.) To guarantee the privileges of contracts and obligations of all accounts; to act as agents in the management, selling, and purchase of property, and generally to transact business as capitalists, bankers, and financiers:

(z.) To lend money, either with or without security, to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to any persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested generally, and to builders, tenants, and contractors:

(aa.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged on all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(bb.) To undertake and execute any trusts the undertaking of which may seem to the Company desirable:

(cc.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(dd.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guarantee the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conducting of its business:

(ee.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, debentures, or other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(ff.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for the shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(gg.) To adopt such means of making known the business of the Company as may seem expedient:

(hh.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of these objects into effect, or for effecting any measure of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or obligations which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(ii.) To distribute any property of the Company in specie among the members:

(jj.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or Territory in the Dominion of Canada, Australia, and in the United Kingdom and elsewhere abroad:

(kk.) To sell, improve, manage, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(ll.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(mm.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or which may in the opinion of the Company be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value, or to facilitate the realization of, or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. oc10

(n.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain and carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(o.) To invest any of the moneys of the Company in or upon such investments or securities as may from time to time be deemed expedient, and to lend or advance moneys to, guarantee the contracts or engagements of, become surety for, and financially assist any person, firm, company, or corporation:

(p.) To raise or borrow moneys, and to secure or guarantee the payment or repayment of any moneys raised, borrowed, or owing by the Company, and the performance or discharge of any of its obligations or liabilities, by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, bonds, mortgages, or other securities based or charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking and assets (including after-acquired property or rights and uncalled or unissued capital) of the Company, or in such other manner as may be determined upon:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, negotiate, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, debentures, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To apply or subscribe for, accept, hold, under write, deal in, and place or guarantee the placing of any shares, scrip, stock, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or securities of any company or corporation:

(s.) To pay for any service rendered to and any property or rights acquired by the Company in such manner as may be deemed expedient, and in particular by the issue of shares or securities of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(t.) To maintain, repair, build upon, alter, improve, extend, manage, develop, sell, lease, exchange, let on hire, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole or any part of the property and assets at any time acquired, possessed, or controlled by the Company:

(u.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(v.) To sell, transfer, or dispose of the whole or any part of the business or undertaking of the Company (whether promoted by this Company or not) to any person, firm, or corporation, and to accept by way of consideration for any such sale, transfer, or disposal any shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or securities of any other company:

(w.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liability of any person or company carrying on business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(x.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any share, debenture, securities, or property belonging to the Company:

(y.) To pay the whole or any part of the costs, charges, fees, and expenses connected with the formation and incorporation of the Company:

(z.) To do all such other acts and things as may seem incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. oc10

(n.) Constructing, maintaining, and operating single- or double-track or aerial or other tramways, with the necessary side-tracks and turnouts for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway, upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highways, roads, streets, bridges which are in the line of tramway intended to be built by the power company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramway intended to be built:

(o.) To take, transfer, and carry passengers, merchandise, and goods of all kinds on the tramway by any motive power now used or that may afterwards be discovered:

(p.) Supplying consumers with electricity, compressed air, or any other form of developed power, whether now known or afterwards discovered:

(q.) To erect, maintain, and repair poles, wires, and lines for the purpose of transmitting electricity or any other power, or telephone or telegraph messages, upon, along, across, or above any Crown lands, highways, roads, streets, bridges, and for these or any other purposes to open, break up highways, roads, and streets, sewers, drains, or tunnels within or under any such highways, roads, or streets:

(r.) To erect poles, posts, pillars, lamps, globes, and any other apparatus in or upon highways, roads, streets, or bridges, or against any wall erected on the same or adjoining thereto:

(s.) The use of water or water-power for hydraulic-mining purposes, and for milling, manufacturing, industrial, and mechanical purposes, other than the generation of electricity:

(t.) To dig trenches and drains and therein to lay cables, lines, and wires, and to put electric cables, lines, wires, switches, and connecting-boards from any cables, lines, and wires in, under, along, or across all roads, highways, streets, and bridges, and from time to time to cut, alter, remove, replace, repair, and relay all or any such cables, lines, wires, switches, and connecting-boards, or other apparatus:

(u.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise the right to use and enjoy electric or any other power already developed by others at any point or points:

(v.) To construct, maintain, alter, repair, and renew devices for measuring light, heat, and power:

(w.) To sell or let for use, light, heat, power, and any and all devices and apparatus used for measuring the same, or otherwise used in connection with the Company's business and works:

(x.) To fix rates and charges for the use of light, heat, and power and the carriage of goods and passengers:

(y.) To require all persons supplied with electric light to place and use only such lamps and appliances as are approved by the Company:

(z.) To sell, assign, transfer to any other company lawfully empowered in that behalf its licence or licences, undertaking and works:

(aa.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise to turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(bb.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(cc.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(dd.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(ee.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the whole or any part of the property of the Company, present or afterwards acquired, or its uncalled capital; and draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue cheques, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(ff.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(gg.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modifications of the Company's constitution, or for any other purposes which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(hh.) To take, acquire, receive, and hold all estates and property, real as well as personal, which are granted, transferred, acquired by or conveyed to the Company in any manner whatsoever, not contrary to law, at any time, by any association, society, person, or body corporate, or by any order, judgment, or decree of any Court in Canada or elsewhere:

(ii.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(jj.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(kk.) To do all such things as are incidental or the Company may think conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

No. 1501 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Crippens Herring Fisheries, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifty thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Prince Rupert, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirtieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia and in the waters surrounding the same, or in any part of the world, the business of fishermen, breeders and propagators, canners, packers, salters, curers, preservers of and dealers in all kinds of fish, crabs, oysters, lobsters, and other products of the sea or inland waters:

(b.) To locate, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire fishing-sites, cannery-sites, fish-traps, and lands suitable for the growing of and cultivation of oysters, lobsters, crabs, and other sea products, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(c.) To buy, own, hold, lease, or otherwise acquire nets, lines, seines, fishing-boats, tackle, and other instruments, implements, and equipment used in the taking, catching, and conserving of fish, including whaling and other deep-sea or inland fishing, and equipment and vessels, fishing and canning plants and appliances, and to use, operate, sell, and dispose of the same:

(d.) To carry on the business of whale-fishing; to erect, own, and operate factories for extracting oil and otherwise turning the carcasses of whales into merchantable products, and to sell and otherwise dispose of said products:

(e.) To carry on the business of wharfingers and warehousemen; to acquire and hold fishing rights, privileges, licences, and permits; to purchase, construct, own, lease, rent, work, operate, maintain, and control canneries and curing-houses, and to manufacture and construct any of the cases, vessels, plant, and appliances usually used in the business of fishing and canning and such as are incidental thereto:

(f.) To build, construct, maintain, operate, purchase, charter, or otherwise acquire vessels, steam-boats, fishing-boats, trawlers, tugs, tenders, scows, barges, crafts, and boats of every description or any interest therein, and to let out, lease, hire, sell, charter, or otherwise dispose of the same or any interest therein:

(g.) To make and sell all kinds of fish-glue, fish-oils, fish-manure, and other substances or things which can be made or manufactured out of fish or mammals, fish-offal or fish-refuse, or otherwise treat and dispose of same:

(h.) To carry on business, both wholesale and retail, as meat-packers, butchers, purveyors of meat, fish, game, and provisions, and to operate and conduct a commission and general mercantile business:

(i.) To manufacture soap and oil or any products or by-products of fish, cattle, sheep, hogs, sea products, packing-houses, meat-canneries, preserving or curing establishments, and to buy and sell the same, and carry on a general business as dealers in any such products:

(j.) To act as common carriers of passengers and freight by land or water; to purchase, lease, construct, or otherwise acquire such quays, docks, wharves, canneries, buildings, factories, plants, and machinery as may be found necessary or desirable for carrying on or furthering the business of the Company, and to sell and lease the same or any part thereof, including all real and personal property of the Company:

(k.) To carry on the business of general, commercial, mercantile, shipping, or forwarding agents, or agents for any railway, steamship, tramway, or other company, and of commission agents, factors, and brokers:

(l.) To carry on the business of cold-storage and of ice manufacturers and dealers in the same by wholesale or retail, and to buy, contract for, lease, or otherwise acquire and to relet or otherwise deal in cold-storage or other importing or exporting facilities on or in any steamship, sailing-vessel, railway, or other transportation system:

(m.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act, 1909," or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(n.) To produce or deal in or contract for any form of power, light, or heat, and to lease, sell, use, or dispose of the same in any manner and for any purpose or purposes, and to obtain, use, let, sell, dispose of, or otherwise deal in any franchise or privilege affecting or concerning the same:

(o.) To acquire any patent rights which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, and to dispose of the same in such manner as the Company desires:

(p.) To acquire the goodwill and property of any business similar to any of the purposes for which the Company is incorporated, and to undertake the sale of all or any of the assets and liabilities of any such business, and to take over and carry on as a going concern the business in connection therewith:

(q.) To pay for any assets or property, real or personal, or rights, privileges, or licences acquired by the Company, either wholly or partly in shares or stock of the Company, either partly or fully paid up:

(r.) To build, lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire hotels or hotel premises and boarding or lodging houses, and to furnish, equip, and rent the same, and obtain trade licences and liquor licences therefor, and to carry on hotel business or boarding- or lodging-house business:

(s.) To purchase, lease, acquire, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of and deal with real estate, shares, stocks, bonds, notes, securities, and property, real and personal, of whosoever kind, of other persons, firms, or corporations:

(t.) To sell, operate, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the assets, property, rights, or privileges of the Company:

(u.) To lend or advance money to such persons on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by members of or persons or companies having dealings with the Company:

(v.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, drafts, and other negotiable instruments:

(w.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(x.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner or form as the Company may think fit, and to such amounts as may from time to time be necessary or deemed advisable for the purposes of the Company, and to issue bonds, debentures, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other securities of the Company, and to mortgage and pledge all or any of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(y.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(z.) To amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated, operating or to operate wholly or partly in the Province of British Columbia, which this Company may deem useful to or calculated to increase its business, and to subscribe for, accept, and hold shares in any such company:

(aa.) To do all such other acts as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1520 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Tracksell, Douglas and Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into fifteen hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eighth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire all the assets and goodwill of the business now carried on at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, by Edwin M. Tracksell, Richard W. Douglas, and Louis L. Butler under the firm-name of "Tracksell, Douglas & Company," with a view thereto to enter into and carry into effect, with or without modification, the agreement referred to in clause 4 of the articles of association of the Company:

(b.) To carry on business of every description as brokers, real-estate and insurance agents, promoters, mortgage-brokers, financial agents, or any business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise and to hold lands situate within and without the Province of British Columbia, and to build dwellings, apartment-houses, hotels, lodging-houses, stores, offices, docks, wharves, or other buildings thereon, and generally to improve such lands:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description situate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing building-sites and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of every kind, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(e.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and houses and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances upon the security of land or house or other property or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(f.) To manage land, building, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income:

(g.) To sell, pledge, or mortgage any mortgage or other security or any other real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite conveyances and assurances in respect thereof:

(h.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of the said Company and to promote the objects and business of the said Company:

(i.) To receive money on deposit with or without interest, and to receive on deposit title deeds, stock, bonds, mortgages, and debentures or other securities:

(j.) To act as agents in collecting rent and interest and the general management of estates:

(k.) To act as an agency or association for or on behalf of others who entrust it with their money for loan or investment, and also to secure the repayment of the principal or the payment of the interest, or both, of any moneys entrusted with the Company for investment; and for the purposes of securing the Company against loss upon any guarantee or obligation or any advance made by the Company, to receive, sell, and dispose of any description of asset or security which is conveyed, pledged, mortgaged, or assigned to or warehoused with the Company in connection with such guarantee, obligation, advance, or investment:

(l.) To amalgamate with any other company having powers wholly or in part similar to the powers of this Company:

(m.) To advance and lend money to builders, tenants, and such other persons, firms, or corporations and upon such terms as may be deemed expedient, with power to take security for the repayment of the same or any other indebtedness owing to the Company, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise any property or assets which may be pledged with the Company as security for such loan or indebtedness, and to resell the same:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(o.) To invest and deal with moneys of the Company upon such securities and in such manner and upon such terms as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and to secure the payment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any parts of the Company's property or assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any liability or obligation it may undertake:

(q.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company:

(r.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(s.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government (Dominion or Provincial), or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise), or any companies, corporations, or persons that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, authority, corporation, companies, or persons any rights, licences, privileges, and concessions, charters, contracts, and rights which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, licences, privileges, and concessions:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(u.) books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(cc.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the lands and rights or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and in the case of shares either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for any such sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, or dealing, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(dd.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(ee.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(ff.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(gg.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(hh.) To lend or advance money to such parties, whether individuals or corporate bodies, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons and corporations having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts or undertakings of any such person or corporation:

(ii.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stocks, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(jj.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company or any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(kk.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized either alone or in conjunction with or as factors, trustees, or agents for any other company or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(ll.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(mm.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(nn.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To build, construct, erect, and equip a bridge across the Bulkley River, British Columbia, at Hulgolgate, near Hazelton, B.C.:

(b.) To carry on the business of general contractors for the construction and equipment of public and private works and buildings of all kinds, and also the business of engineers:

(c.) To construct, execute, carry out, equip, improve, maintain, work, develop, administer, manage, and control public and private works and conveniences of all kinds, which expression shall be held to include (but without in any way limiting the effect of such general words) tramways, docks, harbours, piers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, streets, roads, bridges, dams, flumes, and embankments, irrigation, reclamation, improvement, sewage, sanitary, water, gas, electric light, telephone, and power-supply works, and hotels, warehouses, manufactories, markets, and public and private buildings, and all other works or conveniences of public and private utility; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(d.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase of water records or water privileges:

(e.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the businesses of a power and water company and construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(f.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, municipal, industrial, power, mining, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(g.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied:

(h.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or works which may be required in connection with the improvement and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(i.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct, lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity to and light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(j.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or any persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(k.) To contract with any person, body corporate or politic, for supplying compressed air and electricity, water or water-power to any such person, body corporate or politic, or to any streets, ways, lanes, passages, tramways, mines, smelters, mills, manufactories, ships, warehouses, public or private houses, buildings, and places, and from time to time lay down, carry, fit up, connect, and finish any cumulative storage-battery, cable, wiring, pipes, flumes, switch connections, branch burner lamp, meter transformer, or other apparatus for or in connection with any compressed air, water or electric main, pipe, lead, or cable which for such purposes may be required, and let any such apparatus for hire for such sum as may be agreed upon:

(l.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(m.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(n.) To acquire by staking or purchase, pre-emption, lease, or otherwise, and to hold, manage, work, improve, sell, and turn to account, any lands and hereditaments in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to subdivide, sell, manage, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of the same, or any subdivision or part thereof, or any interest therein:

(o.) To obtain by purchase, pre-emption, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, within British Columbia and elsewhere, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands and mining rights of every description, petroleum lands, peat and coal lands, lands in which are situated oil and gas wells, clay, brick, earth, and sand, and any land or other property necessary to the advantageous possession and use of the mines or works for the time being owned or worked by the Company, and to turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(p.) To buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, scows, boats, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, and merchandise of all kinds:

(q.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land and water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to acquire and operate ferries:

(r.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(s.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(t.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(u.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(w.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company;

(x.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(y.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(z.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(aa.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(bb.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(cc.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(dd.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(ee.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(ff.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(gg.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(hh.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(ii.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(jj.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(kk.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(ll.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(37.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(38.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(39.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(40.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(41.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(42.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. oc17

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1534 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Intercolonial Trust and Investment Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one million dollars, divided into two thousand shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twelfth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To accept, fulfil, and execute all such trusts as may be committed to the Company by any person or persons, or by any corporation, or by any Court of law, on such terms as may be agreed upon or as the Court shall, in case of disability, approve, and which are not contrary to the law, and to take, receive, hold, and convey all estates and property, both real and personal, which may be granted, committed, or conveyed to the Company, with its assent, upon such trust or trusts:

(2.) To act generally as agents or attorneys for the transaction of business, the management of estates, the investment and collection of moneys, rents, interests, dividends, mortgages, bonds, bills, notes, and other securities; to act as agents for the purpose of registering, issuing, and counter-signing the transfers and certificates of stocks, bonds, debentures, or other obligations of the Dominion of Canada or of any Province thereof, or of any corporation, association, or municipality, and to receive and manage any sinking fund therefor on such terms as may be agreed upon:

(3.) To construct, maintain, and operate or lease suitable buildings and structures for the reception and storage of personal property of every nature and kind; to act as agents, consignees, and bailees thereof, and to take all kinds of personal property for deposit and safe-keeping on such terms as may be agreed upon, and to make loans on the same:

(4.) To accept and execute the offices of executor, administrator, trustee, receiver or assignee or trustee for the benefit of creditors under any Act of the Dominion of Canada or of any Province of Canada, and of guardian of any minor's estate, or committee of any lunatic's estate; to accept the duty of and act generally in the winding-up of estates, partnerships, companies, and corporations; and any Court of law or equity, or any judge thereof having authority to appoint such an officer, may, with the consent of the Company, appoint the said Company to exercise any of the said offices in respect of any estate or person under the authority of the Court or Judge making such appointment, and may grant to the Company probate of any will in which the Company is named an executor:

(5.) To guarantee any investments made by the Company as agents or otherwise:

(6.) To sell, pledge, or mortgage any mortgage or other security or any other real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite conveyances and assurances in respect thereof:

(7.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purpose of the said Company and to promote the objects and business of the said Company:

(8.) To lend money upon such terms as are deemed expedient, with power to take security for the same or any other indebtedness owing to the Company upon real estate, ground-rents, Dominion, Provincial, British, foreign, or other public securities, or upon the stocks, shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any municipal or other corporation, or upon goods warehoused or pledged with the Company, or upon such other securities or guarantees as are deemed expedient, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise any of the aforesaid property or assets which may have been pledged with the Company as security for such loan or indebtedness, and to resell the same:

(9.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and to secure the payment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any parts of the Company's property or assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any liability or obligation it may undertake:

(10.) To act as trustee in respect of any debenture, bond, mortgage, hypothec, or other securities issued according to law by any municipal or other corporation:

(11.) The Company may be surety upon any bond required in any judicial proceedings, and, subject to the discretion of the Court, Judge, or official receiving such bond, the surety of the Company may suffice in all cases where two sureties are now required. The Company may arrange for, receive, and recover, if necessary, such remuneration as may be agreed upon for being such security.

The Company may execute the security bond by the manager or secretary signing it for the Company and attaching the Company's seal thereto. A complete record of all such bonds shall be kept at the head office of the Company, and shall be at all hours open for inspection:

(12.) To examine, report upon, and audit the books, accounts, condition, and standing of corporations, partnerships, and individuals:

(13.) To buy, sell, and invest in the stock, bonds, debentures, or obligations of municipal or other corporations, whether in stocks or secured by mortgage or otherwise, or in Dominion, Provincial, British, foreign, or other public securities:

(14.) To receive money on deposit and to allow interest on the same:

(15.) To guarantee any person or persons against any loss or damage by reason of the failure on any part of any person or persons to make due payment of the whole or any part of any loan, advance, mortgage, or claim, hypothecary or otherwise, or in the interest thereon, and to issue its guarantee certificates or policies in such form as it may determine and for such remuneration as it may fix:

(16.) To act as an agency or association for or on behalf of others who entrust it with money for loan or investment, and also to secure the repayment of the principal or the payment of the interest, or both, of any moneys entrusted with the Company for investment; and for the purpose of securing the Company against loss upon any guarantee or obligation or any advance made by the Company, to receive and dispose of any description of asset or security which is conveyed, pledged, mortgaged, or assigned to or warehoused with the Company in connection with such guarantee, obligation, advance, or investment:

(17.) To promote or assist in promoting any other company, and for such purpose to subscribe for, buy, and sell debentures, mortgage debentures, and such security of such other company, and otherwise to employ the money or credit of the Company in any manner deemed expedient for such purposes; and to act as agents for the purpose of collecting and converting into money such securities and properties pledged, and to close and wind up the business of estates, persons, partnerships, associations, or corporate bodies, and to do such incidental acts and things as are necessary for such purposes:

(18.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on:

(19.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(20.) To guarantee the payment of money secured by or payable under or in respect of debenture bonds, debenture stock, contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations, and securities of any person or persons whether corporate or unincorporate, or of any authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise):

(21.) To guarantee the title to or quiet enjoyment of property, either absolutely or subject to any qualifications or conditions, and to guarantee persons interested or about to become interested in any property against any loss, actions, proceedings, claims, or demands in respect of any insufficiency or imperfection or deficiency of title, or in respect of any incumbrances, burdens, or outstanding rights:

(22.) Generally to carry on and transact every kind of guarantee business, and every kind of indemnity business, and every kind of counter-indemnity business:

(23.) To furnish and provide deposits and guarantee funds required in relation to any tender or application for any contract, concession, decree, enactment, property, or privilege, or in the relation to the carrying-out of any contract, concession, decree, or enactment:

(24.) To receive money, securities, and valuables of all kinds on deposit at interest, and generally to carry on the business of a safe-deposit company:

(25.) To accumulate capital for any of the purposes of the Company, and to appropriate any of the Company's assets to specific purposes, either conditionally or unconditionally:

(26.) To acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise and to hold lands, and to build dwellings, apartment-houses, hotels, lodging-houses, stores, offices, docks, wharves, or other buildings thereon, and generally to improve such lands:

(27.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient:

(28.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company or corporation:

(29.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(30.) To acquire, hold, alienate, convey, mortgage, and hypothecate real estate or any estate or title therein which the Company may acquire or control by any form of title:

(31.) To collect and receive all proper remunerations, legal, usual, and customary costs, charges, and expenses for any services, duties, and trusts undertaken or performed by the Company or any of its officers, servants, or agents:

(32.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the exercise of the above powers or any of them:

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall in nowise be restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. oc17

(f.) To search for, stake, lease, record, purchase, or otherwise acquire, sell, and deal in and pay for any information in regard to timber licences, timber leases, timber berths, and timber and wood lands of every description, and to cut, buy, and sell timber and forest products of all sorts, and to acquire, sell, and deal in mill property, mill-sites, and other works for collecting, holding, protecting, driving, rafting, towing, sorting, delivering, and all other purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission of timber, saw-logs, pulp-wood, and other lumber, and right to clear and remove obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream, and for making the same fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, shingle-bolts, timber, lumber rafts or crafts, and to deepen or otherwise improve any river, creek, stream, or lake:

(g.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of the Company's business, and for this purpose to erect, let, maintain dams, flumes, and aqueducts, ditches, or other conduit pipes for the development of power or for the freighting of timber by any power at present known or that may hereafter be devised, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To carry on the business of a light, heat, and power company in all its branches, and generally to provide, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to lay out and operate and maintain, works, stations, engines, power-houses, retorts, structures, accumulators, cables, wires, lamps, meters, transformers, and equipment of every description for the development, generation, transmission, or utilization of gas, water, steam, electric, pneumatic, or other powers or structures and plant for any form of heating and lighting, and to undertake or enter into contracts for the lighting of towns, cities, streets, public and private buildings, and other places, and the supply of gas and electric light, heat, and power for any or all private or public purposes, and to perform and enforce such contracts:

(i.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia the business of a power company or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act, 1909," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia; to acquire any necessary licences therefor, and to pay all such fees and charges, and to execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act, 1909":

(j.) To sell, assign, or transfer to any other company lawfully empowered in that behalf or to any person the Company's licence or licences, undertakings and works as a power company:

(k.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch, employ, and finance expeditions, commissioners, cruisers, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprises for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms:

(l.) To purchase, discount, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of, charge, or otherwise turn to account mortgages, charges, agreements for sale of real estate, personal estate, or any interest in real or personal estate:

(m.) To transact business as real-estate and insurance agents, mortgage-brokers, financial agents and accountants, lumber, timber, mining, and stock brokers, and to buy or sell, either outright or on commission or profit, and generally to deal in or make advances upon real estate or any interest thereunder, timber lands, timber limits, lumber, or any mining or other properties:

(n.) To lay out, construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and to work and operate shops, mills, works, and factories of every kind for the treatment, handling, or manufacture of timber, lumber, or pulp-wood of every description, and the products or by-products or waste thereof, and for the manufacture, separation, and treatment or handling of paper, spirit, gases, asphalt, pitch, tar, paints, acids, clays, sandstone, cements, bricks, and any other product or by-product or manufacture of metal, metalliferous substances, mineral, wood, or other minerals whatsoever, whether severally or in combination:

(o.) To promote, acquire, construct, hire, equip, maintain, improve, work, manage, or control, or aid in or subscribe towards the promotion, acquisition, construction, hiring, equipment, maintenance, improvement, working, management, or control of, works, undertakings, and operations of any kind which may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company or any of them, and in particular roads, ships, scows, launches, dredges, lighters, tramways, branches and sidings, harbours, piers, docks, quays, wharves, warehouses, bridges, viaducts, aqueducts, reservoirs, embankments, waterworks, watercourses, canals, flumes, irrigations, drainage, logging-mills, logging-railways (operating by steam or other power), sawmills, crushing-mills, iron, steel, ordnance, engineering, and implement works, hydraulic works, telegraph or telephone systems, carrying undertakings by land and water, markets, exchanges, mints, public and private buildings, newspapers and publication establishments, breweries, wineries, distilleries, hotels, residences, stores, shops, and places of amusement, recreation, or instruction:

(p.) To construct, build, acquire, hire, charter, navigate, and use sailing-vessels and ships, boats, and craft of all kinds, whether propelled by steam or any other motive power, and to carry on the business of towing, freighting, and lightering and of the conveyance of passengers and merchandise and of carriers by land and water, scow-owners, barge-owners, dredge-owners, shipping and forwarding agents, factors, and warehousemen and wharfingers:

(q.) To carry on the business of manufacturers, dealers, exporters, and importers in earthenware, china, tile, cement, pottery, glass, brick, stone, lime, chemicals, quarries, stone-cutters, earth-workers, and builders and contractors' material and supplies of all kinds:

(r.) To carry on the business of general contractors for public and other works:

(s.) To institute, enter into, carry on, assist, or participate in trading, financial, commercial, mercantile, industrial, manufacturing, mining, and other businesses, works, contracts, undertakings, and financial operations of all kinds, and to carry on business as exporters and importers:

(t.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(u.) To make gifts of land or money for any religious, educational, sanitary, or public purpose, and also to make grants of land without consideration for roads, railways, parks, pleasure-grounds, market-places, public squares, open spaces, or any purpose which it is considered will enhance the value of the remaining property of the Company:

(v.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(w.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(x.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(y.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any if the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by underwriting the subscription to all or any of the share or debenture capital of any such company, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(z.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(aa.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(bb.) To adopt such means of making known the property and purposes of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by the publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(cc.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the lands and rights or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, or any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and in the case of shares either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for any such sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, or dealing, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(dd.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(ee.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(ff.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(gg.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(hh.) To lend or advance money to such parties, whether individuals or corporate bodies, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons and corporations having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts or undertakings of any such person or corporation:

(ii.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stocks, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(jj.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company or any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(kk.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized either alone or in conjunction with or as factors, trustees, or agents for any other company or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(ll.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(mm.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(nn.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

(10.) To undertake and execute any trusts the undertaking whereof may seem desirable, and either gratuitously or otherwise:

(11.) To receive securities and valuables of all kinds for safe custody, and generally to carry on the business of a safe-deposit company, and to receive such remuneration therefor as may be agreed upon:

(12.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company, either upon loans, upon the security, stock, shares, or debentures of the Company, or upon such other securities, in such manner and upon such terms as may from time to time be determined:

(13.) To receive moneys in trust and to invest the same at such rates of interest as may be obtained therefor:

(14.) To facilitate and encourage the creation, issue, or conversion of debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, shares, stocks, and securities, and to act as trustees in connection with any such securities, and to take part in the conversion of business concerns and undertakings into companies:

(15.) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(16.) To employ experts to investigate and examine into the condition, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(17.) To constitute any trusts with a view to the issue of preferred and deferred or any other special stocks or securities based on or representing any shares, stocks, or other assets specifically appropriated for the purposes of any such trust, and to settle and regulate and, if thought fit, to undertake and execute any such trusts, and to issue, dispose of, or hold any such preferred, deferred, or other special stocks or securities:

(18.) To amalgamate with or acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(19.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(20.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(21.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(22.) To carry on business as brokers, real-estate agents, financiers, executors, administrators, receivers, factors, liquidators, assignees, trustees, guarantors, sureties, agents for loan and trust companies, life, fire, accident, and marine insurance agents, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business, and to undertake, carry on, and execute all kinds of financial operations, and to carry on the business of agents or attorneys for any persons, firms, companies, or corporations engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business, upon such terms as to remuneration as may be agreed upon:

(23.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, and to sell, dispose of, and deal in, real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, mines, mining rights, timber lands, timber limits, petroleum lands, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, agreements for sale, charges, patents, licences, shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, escrows, securities, concessions, produce, merchandise, book debts and claims, and any interest in real or personal property, and any claim against any property or any business concern or undertaking, and to carry on any business concern or undertaking so acquired:

(24.) To construct, improve, maintain, alter, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, tramways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, buildings, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(25.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by the Company or in which it is interested, and in particular by subdividing, laying out, and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, fitting up, and improving buildings and conveniences, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(26.) To acquire sawmills, planing-mills, drying-kilns, plants, and machinery, and such other property as may be necessary for the business of the Company or conducive to the proper carrying-on of the same:

(27.) To carry on business as sawmill-owners, loggers, lumbermen, and lumber merchants, and to manufacture, prepare for market, import, export, and deal in timber and wood of all kinds, and to engage in and carry on any business in which timber or wood is used, and to carry on business as ship-owners and carriers by land and sea, and, so far as may be deemed expedient, the business of general merchants:

(28.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire any coal or other mines, mining rights, and metalliferous land in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any interest therein, and to explore, work, exercise, develop, and turn to account the same:

(29.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(30.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, establishment, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any persons or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(31.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(32.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration and on such terms of payment or otherwise as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(33.) To allot, credited as fully paid up or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or to be rendered, or for other valuable consideration:

(34.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(35.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any foreign country or place (or in England and elsewhere abroad).

(36.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament or Congress or of any legislative or executive body for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(37.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among its members:

(38.) To carry on any business or undertaking for which a company might be authorized or incorporated by the "Companies Act," and the generality of this clause is not to be restricted by the specific mention of any objects, power, or undertaking in the other clauses of this memorandum of association:

(39.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, or otherwise; and to use for all or any of the above purposes and things all or any portion of any money held in trust by the Company for investment, and all or any portion of the capital or other money of the Company, and all or any portion of the money received on deposit by the Company:

(40.) To guarantee the title to or quiet enjoyment of property, either absolutely or subject to any qualifications or conditions, and to guarantee persons interested or about to become interested in any property against loss, actions, proceedings, claims, or demands in respect of any insufficiency or imperfection or deficiency of title, or in respect of any encumbrances, burdens, or outstanding rights:

(41.) To guarantee the payment of money secured by or payable under or in respect of stocks, shares, debentures, debenture bonds, debenture stock, contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations, and securities of any company, or of any authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), or of any persons whomsoever, whether corporate or incorporate:

(42.) To guarantee the fidelity of persons filling or about to fill situations of trust or confidence, and the due performance and discharge of such persons of all or any of the duties and obligations imposed on them by contract or otherwise:

(43.) To guarantee persons filling or about to fill situations of trust or confidence against liabilities resulting from the misconduct of any co-trustee, co-agent, sub-agent, or other person, or from the insufficiency, imperfection, or deficiency of title or property, or from any insufficiency, imperfection, or deficiency in any security, or from any bankruptcy, insolvency, fraud, or tortious act on the part of any other persons, or from any error of judgment or misfortune:

(44.) To guarantee the due performance and discharge by receivers, official and other liquidators, committees, guardians, executors, administrators, trustees, attorneys, brokers, and agents by their respective duties and obligations:

(45.) To furnish and provide deposits and guarantee funds required in connection or relation to any tender or application for any contract, concession, decree, enactment, property, or privilege, or in relation to the carrying-out of any contract, concession, decree, or enactment:

(46.) Generally to carry on business as financiers, and to undertake and carry out all such operations and transactions (except the issuing of policies of assurance on human life) as an individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry out:

(47.) And it is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this memorandum of association, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraphs or the name of the Company.

(3.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to sell or otherwise dispose of, exchange, lease, rent, mortgage, or otherwise encumber lands, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land:

(4.) To conduct and carry on business as general merchants, and a general trading, mercantile, and commission business, including the supplying and selling of food, stores, and other necessities for the Company's employees and others, and the establishing, maintaining, and operating of hotels and boarding-houses and restaurants:

(5.) To carry on business as general contractors for the carrying-out, construction, installation, and completion of works, erections, and contracts of all kinds:

(6.) To carry on business as timber merchants and sawmill, shingle-mill, and pulp-mill proprietors, and to buy, sell, import, export, manufacture, prepare for market, and deal in saw-logs, timber, lumber, shingles, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(7.) To purchase, build, own, charter, use, hold, equip, maintain, and operate steamships, sailing-vessels, and other vessels, tugs, boats, and crafts, and to carry on business as carriers of freight and passengers for hire:

(8.) To establish, purchase, build, own, manage, and operate fisheries, whaling, sealing, and fishing boats and stations, canneries, salteries, curing establishments, and all kinds of works and equipment for winning, preserving, treating, and dealing in all manner of products of the sea:

(9.) To act and conduct business as financial, insurance, collection, real-estate, house, special, and general agents and brokers; to acquire agencies and to be appointed agent for any person, firm, or corporation; to act generally as appraiser, valuator, or adjuster of real estate, personal estate, stocks, goods, and chattels, or for any other lawful purpose; to act as accountant and auditor, and to assume and perform such duties as are or may be performed by accountants and auditors:

(10.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property and assets:

(11.) To borrow money on security of the whole or any part of property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(12.) To lend, deposit, or advance money, securities, or property to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments, and in all respects to have and enjoy the same powers and privileges with regard to lending its money and transacting its business as a private individual could have and enjoy:

(13.) To buy, take by grant, assignment, devise, bequest, or otherwise acquire title to, and to sell and transfer, mortgage and hypothecate, any Provincial, railway, municipal, and other bonds or debentures of any kind whatsoever, and stock and shares in companies, banks, or building societies and other securities; to countersign certificates of stock, bonds, or other obligations of any kind whatsoever; to invest and manage any sinking fund of any kind for any municipality or corporation on such terms as may be agreed upon; to guarantee any investment made by the Company as agent or otherwise:

(14.) To give any guarantee in relation to mortgages, loans, investments, and securities, whether made or effected or acquired through the Company's agency or otherwise, and generally to guarantee or become sureties for the performance of any contracts and obligations:

(15.) To act as representative or proxy for any person, firm, or corporation for any lawful purpose; to collect money due or owing in any way to any person, firm, estate, or corporation; to employ solicitors, attorneys, or counsel for any lawful purpose; to enter and prosecute, compromise and settle, and represent persons interested in actions, causes of action, and suits of every kind, and to take proceedings in Courts of law, pertaining to or which may appear necessary or advantageous in connection with its business or objects; to act as attorneys in fact for any lawful purpose:

(16.) To purchase, lease, construct, and hold or otherwise acquire foreshore with territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, real and personal property, patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves, and other buildings and easements, and to sell, lease, or mortgage the same or any part thereof:

(17.) To acquire from any Government, either Provincial or Dominion or otherwise, any lands, concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges as may be found necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(18.) To acquire water records and licences to take and use water by application to the Government of the Province of British Columbia, or the Government of any other Province, State, or country, or by purchase from the holders thereof; to obtain such water rights for domestic or municipal purposes, for the irrigation of land, for steam, for power, for mining, for clearing streams, for driving logs, or for any purpose for which water may be acquired under the "Water Act," or any other Act for the time being in force respecting water and water rights and privileges, either within or without the Province of British Columbia; to carry on the business of a power company and to supply and sell light, heat, water, and power:

(19.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any streams, rivers, or lakes in British Columbia or elsewhere, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dykes, dams, weirs, flood-gates, measuring-devices, breakwaters, drains, ditches, canals, basins, reservoirs, tunnels, bridges, culverts, cribs, embankments, headworks, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pumps, and works of all kinds for holding, carrying, and conducting water:

(20.) To supply any city, town, municipality, or unorganized district with water; to build, construct, lay down, and maintain water-mains, water-pipes, filter-beds, and other appliances, and to execute and do all other works and things necessary for obtaining, storing, selling, delivering, measuring, and distributing water for the purposes of the Company; to carry on the business of a waterworks or water-supply company in all its branches:

(21.) To use water and water-power for producing any form of power, and for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, and to sell and supply electricity, electric power, compressed air, and any other forms of developed power to consumers for any purposes to or for which electric power, compressed air, or any other form of developed power may be applied or required; to build, equip, and maintain power-houses, poles, wires, and power-lines, and all necessary plant and equipment for generating and distributing all forms of developed power; to build and operate electric tramways and trolleys; to build, construct, and maintain electric cars and conveyances on such electric tramways and trolleys, and to carry passengers and freight thereon for hire and for all purposes connected with the Company's business and undertakings; to exercise all of the powers, rights, and privileges conferred upon power companies and companies using water for domestic or any other purposes by the "Water Act," or any other Act for the time being in force relating to water and water rights and privileges:

(22.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein-stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(23.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on, or engage in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares or stock or securities in any company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to promote, incorporate, and finance companies, and to hold, buy, sell, mortgage, or hypothecate, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the shares or securities of any company:

(24.) To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(25.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company and part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(26.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company in specie among its members:

(27.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(28.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(29.) To do all or any of the above things in any of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in such Province or country:

(30.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by capitalists, promoters, or manufacturers; to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

And it is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. oc24

(e.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, the business of a power company or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act, 1909," of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia; to acquire any necessary licences therefor, and to pay all such fees and charges, and to execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act, 1909," and of the "Power Company Relief Act, 1902":

(f.) To sell, assign, or transfer to another company lawfully empowered in that behalf the Company's licence or licences, undertakings and works as a power company:

(g.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of the Company's business, and for this purpose to erect, let, and maintain dams, flumes, and aqueducts, ditches, or other conduit pipes for the development of power, or for the freighting of timber by any power at present known or that may hereafter be devised, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To undertake as contractors to construct, maintain, and use single- or double-track or aerial or other tramways, steam, or electric or other railways, with all necessary side-tracks and turnouts thereon for the passage of cars, carriages, and all kinds of vehicles capable of being used upon or in connection with a tramway or any kind of railway, upon, along, across, under, or above any lands, highway, roads, streets, or bridges which are in the line of any tramway, railway, tunnel, bridge, or viaduct built or intended to be built by the Company, and to erect, maintain, and repair poles and wires in the line of the tramways, electric or steam railways:

(i.) To lay out, construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and to work and operate shops, factories, mills, works, and factories of every kind for the treatment, handling, or manufacture of timber, lumber, or pulp-wood of every description, and the products or by-products thereof, and for the manufacture, separation, and treatment or handling of spirit-gases, oils, crude oils, asphalt, pitch, tar, paints, acids, clays, sandstone, cements, bricks, and any other product or by-product or manufacture of metal, metalliferous substances, mineral, wood, or other materials whatsoever, whether severally or in combination:

(j.) To search for, stake, lease, record, purchase, or otherwise acquire, sell, and deal in and pay for any information in regard to timber licences, timber leases, timber berths, and timber and wood lands of every description, and to cut, buy, and sell timber and forest products of all sorts, mill property, mill-sites, water rights and water records, right to build tramways, skidways, roads, fore-shores rights, wharves, docks, piers, and other works for collecting, holding, protecting, driving, rafting, towing, sorting, delivering, and all other purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission of timber, saw-logs, pulp-wood, and other lumber, and right to clear and remove obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream, and for making the same fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, shingle-belts, timber, lumber rafts or crafts, and to deepen or otherwise improve any river, creek, stream, or lake:

(k.) To search for, lay out, purchase, lease, construct, acquire by pre-emption or otherwise, oil-fields, oil-wells, oil-bearing lands and privileges, coal-mines, coalfields, collieries and coal lands, beds of peat, ore-bearing properties, mines of iron or other minerals, mineral lands, mining locations, mining and surface rights, metalliferous lands, and wells of natural gas, and to pay for any information in relation thereto, and to work, develop, and operate and turn to account the same or any of them:

(l.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire by grant, selection, or otherwise, and to sell, deal with, turn to account, or otherwise dispose of, any real estate or other property, and to clear, drain, irrigate, cultivate, improve, plant, survey, develop, and lay out townships and prepare the same for building:

(m.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch, employ, and finance expeditions, commissioners, cruisers, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprises for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms:

(n.) To purchase, discount, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of, charge, or otherwise turn to account mortgages, charges, agreements for sale of real estate, personal estate, or any interest in real or personal estate:

(o.) To transact business as lumber, timber, mining, and stock brokers, real-estate and insurance agents, promoters, mortgage-brokers, financial agents, and accountants, and to buy or sell, either out-right or on commission or profit, and generally to deal in or make advances upon timber limits, timber lands, lumber, or real estate or any interest therein, or any mining or other properties:

(p.) To receive money on deposit with or without interest; to act as agents in collecting rent and interest, and the general management of timber and other estates, or mining or other properties:

(q.) To carry on the business of shipping agents and forwarding agents, factors, and warehousemen and wharfingers:

(r.) To institute, enter into, carry on, assist, or participate in trading, financial, commercial, mercantile, industrial, manufacturing, mining, and other businesses, works, contracts, undertakings, and financial operations of all kinds, and to carry on business as exporters and importers:

(s.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(t.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(u.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(v.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of the Company; and to enter into partnership or any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(w.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company, or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(x.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(y.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, in British Columbia or elsewhere, any land, with or without buildings or erections thereon, which may seem suitable for the business of the Company:

(z.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(aa.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(bb.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(cc.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(dd.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(ee.) To draw, accept, and make and to endorse, discount, and negotiate bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(ff.) To lend or advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company:

(gg.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stocks, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(hh.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(ii.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company or any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(jj.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized either alone or in conjunction with or as factors, trustees, or agents for any other company or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(kk.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(ll.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(mm.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs of this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To take over the Canadian business at present being carried on by J. F. Wineland Building and Engineering Company, of Portland, Oregon, registered at Victoria, B.C., as a foreign company:

(b.) To carry on the business of general contractors in all classes of construction, engineers, and builders, and to carry on any other business capable of being carried on in connection with any of the Company's objects:

(c.) To make, draw, issue, accept, endorse, discount, buy, sell, and deal in promissory notes, agreements, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures, coupons, and any and all other negotiable instruments and securities:

(d.) To manage lands, buildings, and other properties, whether belonging to the Company or for other persons, or corporations, on commission or for other consideration, and collect rents and other incomes and rent-charges generally:

(e.) To issue redeemable or irredeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock (such bonds, debentures, or debenture stock being made payable to bearer or otherwise, and issuable or payable either at par or at a premium or discount), or by mortgage, trust deed, scrip certificates, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or by any other instrument, or in such other manner as may be determined; and for any such purposes to charge all or any part of the property and assets of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(f.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(g.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, of amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(h.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(i.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to sell, exchange, lease, underlease, surrender, or otherwise deal with, absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the undertaking, property, rights, or privileges of the Company, as a going concern or otherwise, to any public body, corporation, company, society, or association, or to any person or persons, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any stock, shares (whether wholly or partly paid), debentures, debenture stock, securities, or property of any other company:

(j.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company, or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(k.) To distribute any of the assets or property of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(l.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each paragraph defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

No. 1539 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Okanagan Hardware Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of thirty-five thousand dollars, divided into three hundred and fifty shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the Town of Armstrong, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this sixteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise the hardware business heretofore carried on by William Joseph Armstrong and David James Caldwell under the firm-name and style of "Armstrong and Caldwell" at Armstrong, in the County of Yale, and to pay for the same by allotment to them fully paid-up shares in the capital of the Company, or in cash, or partly by the allotment of shares and partly in cash:

(b.) To carry on the business of wholesale and retail merchants of hardware, stoves, tinware, paints, and oils, and to purchase and sell the same and all or any other articles of merchandise which the Company may deem advisable, and generally to carry on such business and any other business which the Company may consider capable of being carried on in connection with the said business:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or in exchange any real estate necessary for the conduct of the said business, and to sell the same or any part thereof when not required by the Company; to erect stores, buildings, warehouses, and factories thereon, and to lease any parts thereof from time to time as may not be required:

(d.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(e.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company:

(f.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities:

(g.) To borrow money on the security of the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company to such an amount as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to grant mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(h.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(i.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst its members in specie:

(j.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(l.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on, engaging in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(n.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances on the security of any land or house or other property, or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(o.) To do all or any of the above things set out as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(p.) To pay the expenses of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person or persons for services rendered in or about the formation of the Company or the conduct of its business, and such payment and remuneration may be in cash or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or in any other manner as the Company may determine:

(g.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 1545 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "London and Port Mann Syndicate, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred and ninety-six thousand dollars, divided into four hundred shares.

The head office of the Company is situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this nineteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire a certain parcel or tract of land, being composed of and more particularly described as one hundred acres off the west side of Section Ten (10), in Block Five (5) north, Range One (1) west, in the District of New Westminster, lying to the south of and adjoining the right-of-way of the New Westminster Southern Railway; and generally to acquire by purchase, lease, pre-emption, exchange, or otherwise any lands or any interests therein or any real property whatsoever within the Province of British Columbia, and to hold the same and to pay for the same in cash or shares in the Company, and to survey, lay out townsites and subdivide the same or any part thereof, and to clear, manage, farm, cultivate, dyke, reclaim, irrigate, plant, build on, or otherwise work, use, or improve the same, and sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of the same or any portion thereof, or any interest therein, when and as the Company may deem fit:

(b.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, tramways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(c.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, to sell, lease, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, and otherwise deal in, any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(d.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(e.) To issue on commission, subscribe for, take, acquire, purchase, hold, sell, exchange, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, or otherwise deal in stocks, bonds, debentures, and shares of other corporations, or shares and interests in any other business, whether incorporated or not:

(f.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, co-operation, or otherwise with any other company, person, or persons carrying on or to carry on any business or works or undertaking which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold debentures, bonds, shares, stock, or securities of any such company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to buy, sell, and otherwise deal in all such shares and securities:

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company, and to pay for the same either in cash or in fully or partly paid-up shares either in this or in any other company:

(h.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company:

(i.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-powers, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any channel or channels:

(j.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere the business of a power company or any business of the Company within the meaning of the "Water Act" of the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, and to acquire any necessary licences therefor; to pay all such fees and charges, and execute all such documents, and do all such things that may be required therefor; and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act" and of the "Power Companies' Relief Act, 1902," and amendments thereto:

(k.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, pre-empt, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any timber lands in fee or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and any rights or privileges in connection therewith, and to develop and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(l.) To undertake and carry on the business of financial agents, insurance agents, estate agents, brokers and dealers in all kinds of property, real and personal, on agency terms, and generally to carry on a general agency business:

(m.) To form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds:

(n.) To negotiate loans, and lend money to such persons and upon such securities, whether real or personal, as to the Company shall seem fit:

(o.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by brokers, capitalists, promoters, financiers, concessionaires, merchants, and any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on or in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(p.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking, including the guaranteeing of any investment made by the Company:

(q.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(r.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(u.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(v.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in the placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(w.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(x.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(y.) To procure the Company to be registered or licensed to carry on business in any other part of the world:

(z.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

(v.) To carry on the business of common carriers in all its branches:

(w.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(x.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its object or otherwise or in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(y.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on, engaging in, or about to carry on and engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(z.) To borrow money on the security of the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company to such an amount as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to grant mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(aa.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities:

(bb.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst the members in specie:

(cc.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(dd.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(ee.) To purchase or otherwise acquire shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(ff.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person, corporation, or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be carried on so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(gg.) To do all or any of the above things set out as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(hh.) To pay the expenses of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person or persons for services rendered in or about the formation of the Company or the conduct of its business, and such payment and remuneration may be in cash or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or in any other manner as the Company may determine:

(ii.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(t.) To act as agent or attorney for provincial, extra-provincial, and foreign companies, and for owners of property, real or personal, in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(u.) To obtain or in any way assist in obtaining any Act of Parliament or other necessary authority for enabling this or any other company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of this or any other company's constitution; to procure this or any other company to be legalized, registered, or incorporated, if necessary, in accordance with the laws of any country or State in which it may or may propose to carry on operations:

(v.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms, with or without security, as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by members of, or companies or persons having dealing with, the Company; and to draw, accept, endorse, discount, issue, buy, sell, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, drafts, bills of lading, coupons, warrants, and other negotiable instruments, and buy, sell, and deal in bullion, specie, and coin:

(w.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company in such manner and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and to secure the payment thereof by redeemable or irredeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock (such bonds, debentures, or debenture stock being made payable to bearer or otherwise, and issuable or payable either at par or at a premium or discount), or by mortgage, scrip certificates, bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or by any other instrument or any such other manner as may be determined; and for any such purposes to charge all or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, or bonds, debentures, or debenture stocks issued by the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration:

(x.) To transact and carry on all kinds of agency business, and in particular to collect rents and debts, and to negotiate loans, to find investments, and to issue and place shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, or securities:

(y.) To furnish and provide deposits and guarantee funds required in relation to any tender or application for any contract, concession, decree, enactment, property, or privilege, or in relation to the carrying-out of any contract, concession, decree, or enactment:

(z.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of its other objects of otherwise expedient:

(aa.) To guarantee or become liable for the payment of money or for the performance of any obligations:

(bb.) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking, and for that to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(cc.) To employ experts to investigate and examine into the conditions, prospects, value, character, and circumstances of any business concerns and undertakings, and generally of any assets, property, or rights:

(dd.) To transact or carry on all kinds of agency business, and in particular in relation to the investment of money, the sale of property, and the collection and receipt of money:

(ee.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants and occupiers and others refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, garages, and other advantages:

(ff.) To open and keep a foreign register or registers of this or any other company in any country, and to allocate any number of the shares in this or any other company to such register or registers:

(gg.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the globe either as principals, agents, or contractors, managers, or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees, or otherwise, with power to appoint a trustee or trustees, personal or corporate, to hold any property on behalf of the Company, and to allow any property to remain outstanding in such trustee or trustees:

(hh.) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, either together or in portions, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any company purchasing the same:

(ii.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any real or personal property or any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of other companies belonging to this Company, or of which this Company may have the power of disposing:

(jj.) To purchase, acquire, sell, pledge, and dispose of stocks, bonds, notes, agreements for sale of land, and securities of all kinds:

(kk.) To acquire and take over any business or undertaking carried on upon or in connection with any land or building which the Company may desire to acquire as aforesaid or become interested in, and the whole or any of the assets and liabilities of such business or undertaking, and to carry on the same, or to dispose of, remove, or put an end thereto, or otherwise deal with the same as may seem expedient:

(ll.) To establish and carry on and to promote the establishment and carrying-on upon any property in which the Company is interested of any business which may be conveniently carried on upon or in connection with such property, or the establishment of which may seem calculated to enhance the value of the Company's interest in such property, or to facilitate the disposal thereof:

(mm.) To insure with any other company or person against losses, damages, risks, and liabilities of all kinds which may affect this Company:

(nn.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of the clause shall, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the company.

ENTRANCE FOR EXAMINATION.

Entrance for any examination must be made in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Examiners, at least ten days before the date set for beginning of examination, and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee ($15).

CERTIFICATE.

A certificate of efficiency in assaying will, upon payment of the prescribed fee ($15), be issued to each successful candidate, which certificate shall be considered as a licence to practise assaying in British Columbia; and notice is hereby given that only those holding such certificate of proficiency or licence will be allowed to act as assayers in this Province, under penalty, as provided by the Act.

EXEMPTION FROM EXAMINATION.

In accordance with subsection (2) of section 12 of the Act, graduates of certain Schools of Mines and Colleges may be exempt from examinations, and may, upon satisfying the examiners, as provided in the Act, receive such certificate of competency or licence, upon payment of the fee therefor ($15).

The examination will consist chiefly of the practical assaying of samples, and while the Department of Mines will provide all the apparatus and chemicals usually necessary, it will not undertake to provide any special or unusual appliances or chemicals which might be called for, and if a candidate should require such he will have to provide them at his own expense.

Candidates must provide themselves with such platinum ware and sets of weights as they may require, as these will not be furnished at the examination.

The Department of Mines will make no charge for the use of chemicals or apparatus, but a candidate will be charged for all breakages or unnecessary loss caused by him.

Any additional information desired may be obtained from Herbert Carmichael, Secretary, Board of Examiners, Victoria.
